BY GEORGE M'KERN,
PRINTER AND STATIONER TO THE GRAND JURY OF
THE COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

1820.

CONSERVATORS'

DUTY AND POWERS.

BY an act passed in the thirty-sixth year of his late Majesty, it is enacted, "That for the better preservation of public roads from encroachments and nuisances, and for the more regular and effectual execution of the law, Conservators may be appointed by Grand Juries; and that any sum presented for them, shall not be paid to any such Conservator, until he shall have laid (upon oath,) before the Grand Jury, in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, a full and exact account of his proceedings in the execution of his office, stating when and how often he inspected each road within his district—what nuisances, encroachments, or breaches of this act he observed; what remedies he took to remove or punish for the same—what magistrates he applied to—what warrants he received, and what fines he levied, and whether any and what encroachments and nuisances, and whether any and what ditches, walls, or houses, have been made or built, or pits dug within the time of his appointment or since last assizes, or any road or nearer to the centre or sides thereof than this act permits; whether they continue so, and in general a true and perfect state of the roads and bridges, and all other works and matters thereon erected or repaired by presentment;" And it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury to examine every such Conservator upon oath touching any matter respecting the execution of his office, or the state of the road within his district; and every such Conssrvator shall have all the power given by law to any overseer, and shall be deemed the overseer of all public works within his district; and the several sub-constables are hereby required to aid and assist him in the execution of his duty when required; and he is to report to the Grand Jury any neglect of such assistance in any such sub-constable. And for every cart load of dung, rubbish or scouring, which have been laid on any public road, or within thirty feet of the centre thereof, contrary to the provisions of this act, and which shall be drawn away by directions of any Conservator, after having remained there for twenty-four hours, the person whom, or by whose order, the same was laid there, or who shall be liable to penalty for the same being laid there, upon conviction before any justice of the peace within his jurisdiction, by the oath of one credible witness, shall forfeit the sum of one shilling for every day the same shall have remained there. And the conservator and sub-constable within their respective jurisdictions, may seize and kill any cur-dog, mastiff, or bull-dog, which shall be kept near any public road, contrary to the provisions of the said act; and if any person whatsoever shall be annoyed in passing or re-passing any public road, by any cur-dog, mastiff, or bull-dog, which shall be kept near such road contrary to the provisions of said act, it shall be lawful for any such person to kill such cur-dog, mastiff, or bull-dog, without being sued or prosecuted for the same. And if any person shall scour, deepen, widen, or fill up any ditch or drain on the side of any road, without the consent or directions of the conservator appointed for the barony; or if any owner or occupier shall omit to scour any ditch or drain leading from any public road, so as to give full liberty for the water to pass away, within ten days after notice shall be given to him or her so to do by such conservator, or shall permit or suffer the free passage of the water to be obstructed by making or having any way or passage from any road into the lands adjoining, or to his or her house, without sufficient pipe, sewer or gullet underneath; or shall ride or drive any horse, beast or other cattle, willingly or unnecessarily on any foot-path, or shall steep or dry any flax, or burn any bricks or lime, or any weeds or vegetables for ashes, or build any lime-kiln on his or her land within one hundred feet of the centre of any public road, or shall cut any turf, or make any turf-stack on any public road within forty feet of the centre thereof, or shall build any wall, or make any ditch, or dig any pit on any public road, within thirty feet of the centre thereof, unless by authority of some presentment: or shall leave or permit to be left on any road opposite to, or near his or her house or offices, any plough or harrow, cart, car, dray or other carriage without the beast or beasts being harnessed thereto, unless such carriage shall have been accidentally broken down there, every person so offending, shall forfeit and pay the fines and penalties as mentioned in the said act.

FURTHER EXTRACTS

FROM THE

EXISTING ROAD ACTS,

36th Geo. III. Chap. 36.

69. AND, be it further enacted, "That it shall be lawful for any Justice of Peace in any County, and Peace Officer within their respective Jurisdictions, or for any Overseers or Conservators of roads, to seize and impound, or cause to be seized or impounded, any swine or beast which shall be found wandering on any public road, and in case the sum of 5s. and the expences of impounding and detaining the same, shall not be paid within four days after impounding the same, to cause such swine or beast to be sold, and out of the money arising from the sale thereof, to pay such penalty and expences of impounding, keeping, and selling the same, rendering the overplus, (if any.) to the owner; notice of such sale, in which shall be inserted the names of the Parish and Townland, where such swine or beast was seized, being first posted up in some conspicuous place in the parish where seized, and at the place where impounded, forty-eight hours, at least, before the time of sale."

70. AND be it further enacted, "That no house or part of a house, shall be built within thirty feet of the centre of any road, or within fifteen feet of the side thereof, (except in streets or corporate towns, and that if any person shall build, or begin to build, or proceed in building any house or part of a house, within such distance, every such person shall forfeit the sum of ten pounds, and the further sum of twenty shillings for every week afterwards, until the same shall be pulled down or removed: to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace as aforesaid."

71. AND be it further enacted, "That no lime-kiln shall be built within 100 feet of the centre of any public road, and that it shall be lawful for any Grand Jury as aforesaid, or Justices at a Sessions of the Peace, to direct any house or lime kiln, built or building, contrary to this or any other act hereby repealed, to pull down, and to issue orders to any constable or constables, for that purpose, which every high and other constable shall aid and assist in executing."

72. AND, be it further enacted, "That the centre of the road within the provisions of this act, shall be deemed to the centre of the part thereof made with gravel or small stones."

73. AND, be it further enacted, "That if any person shall wilfully destroy, pull up, deface, or injure any mile-stone, mile post, or direction post, or any bridge, battlement, wall, railing, mound, or fence, erected or repaired by presentment; or shall wilfully break, deface, pull down, or take away stones out of any such bridge, &c. built or repaired by presentment, he or she shall forfeit for every such offence, upon conviction, by the oath of a credible witness, before a Justice of the Peace within their jurisdictions, or upon view of such Justice of the Peace, such sum not exceeding five pounds, as such Justice might think fit."

85. AND be it further enacted, "That the contractor or contractors for keeping any part of any public road in repair shall have all the powers given by law to any overseer or Conservator of the roads, and shall be deemed the overseer of all parts of the road, for which he has or shall Contract, during the continuance of such Contract."

89. AND, be it further enacted, "That all fines and forfeitures inflicted by virtue of this act, if not immediately paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods by warrant under the hand and seal of a Justice of the Peace, together with all expences attending the levying the same; all such fines, unless otherwise especially direrted by this act, shall when levied and paid, be given, one half to the informer and the other half to the poor of the Parish wherein the offence shall have been committed; and that in case any fine be not immediately paid upon conviction, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom such conviction shall have been made, to commit the offender to gaol, there to remain without bail or mainprize for any time not exceeding two months, or until the fine be paid.

SUMMER ASSIZES, 1820.

ORDERS, RESOLUTIONS, &c.

Accounting at October Sessions.

ORDERED, that a Sessions be held on Wednesday, the 25th day of October next, at the County Court House, for the purpose of accounting for Presentments that were not finished previous to this Assizes.

N. B.—All persons intending to account for Presentments at said Sessions, must cause a Notice of their intention of accounting to be posted at the usual place for posting Notices in the Parish, in which the Work, proposed to be accounted for, is situated, between the hours of NINE AND TWELVE O'CLOCK in the Forenoon, on Saturday, the 14th of October next—and a similar Notice must be lodged in the Office of the Grand Jury Secretary, No. 60, Upper George's Street, on or before that day.—The persons posting or lodging the Notices as aforesaid, must attend the Sessions at the County Court House, on Wednesday the 25th October, to prove having done so,—and where also the Overseer who is to swear to the expenditure of the money, is to attend on the same day with his Accounting Affidavit drawn up, in order to be sworn in open Court by the Magistrates, who shall preside at said Special Sessions.

☞ Proper forms of Notices for accounting for Presentments—and the late Road Act, may be had at the Shop of George M'Kern, County Printer—25, George's Street.

Ordered,—That in the event of Mr. James Enright, High Constable of the barony of Kenry, not strictly fulfilling his engagement to have the whole of last Spring Assizes levy paid into the Treasurer on the first of October next, agreeable to his letter to that effect, that the Treasurer shall hand over his bond to the Law Agent of this County, in order to have his Securities sued immediately, Ordered,—That all the Petty Constables be discontinued in this County from this Assizes.

Ordered,—That twenty-one acres of the lands of Gormanstown Phillips be taken from the Parish of Athanassy and placed in the Parish of Uregare, in the Barony of Small County, and that four acres be added to the townlands of Cappanafara, in the Parish of Bruree, in the barony of Small County, and that the Table of Townlands for said Barony be published and posted again previous to Spring Assizes, 1821, to be then confirmed.

Gabbett a Hunt. — Ordered,—That our Solicitor, Mathew Barrington, do appoint William Kennedy, a Receiver under the Custodiam in this Cause, he being recommended by the Sub-Sheriff Mr. Cuthbert, is not required to enter into any security.

Heffernan a Gabbett. — Ordered,—That the Solicitor be directed to refer this Cause to the arbitration of Counsel, if he can obtain the consent of the Representative.

We nominate and appoint, Charles Conyers, esq. Jun. of Coolruss, to be Supervisor without salary, to that part of the Mail Coach Road from Cork to Limerick, between the bounds of the Counties of Cork and Limerick, and the south bounds of Coolruss, containing 1213 perches, in the room of William Nash, esq. resigned.

Resolved,—That we do most earnestly recommend to the next Sheriff, to take particular care to appoint a person of character, benevolence, and experience, and wholly unconnected with this County and City, as the Governor of the new County Gaol.

Resolved, That we do most earnestly recommend to future Grand Juries, to withhold any Presentment for Gaoler, unless they are satisfied that such Officer is well and duly qualified to fill the situation to which he is appointed.—That our object in making this representation, is a conviction that unless due care is taken to provide for the future administration of the Gaol by providing for its moral government, and by the introduction of a careful œconomy in its internal arrangement, the expence which this County has so liberally gone to, may be considered as productive of no good consequence.

We nominate and appoint John Croker, Esq. of Ballinaguard, in said County, to be Supervisor without salary, to that part of the Mail Coach Road from Limerick to Cork, between Connor Curtin's house in Croom and the ford of Aughbee, in the room of Henry Lyons, esq resigned.

Ordered,—That 25 acres be added to the townlands of Ballinabonaga, in the barony of Coshma, and that the applotment be made on 239 acres instead of 214 acres —The Table of Townlands for said barony to be published previous to next Assizes.

We direct and present,—That in future the High Constable for the barony of UpperConnelloe, in the County of Limerick, shall collect and levy the public cess or levies on 925 acres on the townlands of Glanagown and Ballypearce, instead of 395 acres heretofore levied on said townlands, being herefore overcharged 161 acres more than the actual survey.
