LIMERICK:

PRINTED AT THE HIBERNIA OFFICE, 106, GEORGE-STREET

BY GEORGE M'KERN,

PRINTER AND STATIONER TO THE GRAND JURY OF THE

COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

1834.

Conservator's Duty and Powers.

BY an Act passed in the thirty-sixth year of His late Majesty, it is enacted, "That for the better preservation of Public roads from encroachments and nuisances, & for the more regular and effectual execution of the Law, Conservators may be appointed by Grand Juries; and that any sum presented for them, shall not be paid to any such Conservator, until he shall have laid (upon oath) before the Grand Jury, in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, a full and exact account of his proceedings in the execution of his office, stating when and how often he inspected each road within his District, what nuisances, encroachments, or breaches of this Act he observed, what remedies he took to remove or punish for the same—what magistrates he applied to—what warrants he received, and what fines he levied, and whether any &what ditches, walls, or houses, have been made or built, or pits dug, within the time of his appointment, or since last assizes; on any road, or nearer to the centre or sides thereof than this act permits, whether they continue so, and in general, a true and perfect state of the roads and bridges, and all other works and matters thereon erected or repaired by presentment;"—And it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury to examine every such Conservator upon Oath, touching any matter respecting the execution of his office, or the state of the road within his District, ; and every such Conservator shall have all the power given by law to any Overseer, and shall be deemed the Overseer of all public works within his district: and the several Sub-constables are hereby required to aid and assist him in the execution of his duty when required: and he is to report to the Grand Jury any neglect of such assistance in any such sub-constable. And for every cart load of Dung, Rubbish, or Scouring, which have been laid on any public road, or within thirty feet of the centre thereof, contrary to the provisions of this Act, and which shall be drawn away by directions of any such Conservator, after having remained there for twenty four hours, the person whom or by whose order the same was laid there, or who shall be liable to penalty for the same being laid there, upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace within his jurisdiction, by the oath of one credible witness, shall forfeit the sum of one shilling for every day the same shall have remained there. Aud the Conservator and Sub-constables within their respective jurisdictions, may seize or kill any cur dog, mastiff, or bull dog, which shall be kept near any public road, contrary to the provisions of the said Act, and if any person whatsoever shall be annoyed in passing or repassing any public road, by any cur dog, mastiff, or bull dog, which shall be kept near such road contrary to the provisions of said act, it shall be lawful for any such person to kill such cur dog, mastiff, or bull dog, without being sued or prosecuted for the same. And if any person shall scour, deepen, widen, or fill up any ditch or drain on the side of any road, without the consent or directions of the conservator appointed for the barony; or if any owner or occupier shall omit to scour any ditch or drain leading from any public road, so as to give full liberty to the water to pass away, within ten days after notice shall be given to him or her so to do by such Conservator, or shall permit or suffer the free passage of the water to be obstructed by making, or having any way or passage from any road into the lands adjoining, or to his or her house, without sufficient pipe, sewer, or gullet, underneath, or shall ride or drive any horse, beast, or other cattle, willingly or unnecessarily on any foot path, or shall steep or dry any flax, or burn any bricks or lime, or any weeds or vegetable for ashes, or build any Lime-kiln on his or her land, within one hundred feet of the centre of any public road, or shall cut any turf, or make any turf stack on any public road, within forty feet of the centre thereof, or shall build any wall, or make any ditch, or dig any pit on any public road, within thirty feet of the centre thereof, unless by authority of some Presentment, or shall leave or permit to be left on any road opposite to, or near his or her house or offices, any plough or harrow, cart, car, dray, or other carriage, without the beast or beasts being harnessed thereto, unless such carriage shall have been accidentally broken down there, every person so offending, shall forfeit and pay the fines and penalties as mentioned in the said Act."

Further Extracts from the existing Road Acts.

36th GEO. III, CAP. 55.

69—AND be it further enacted, "That it shall be lawful for any Justice of Peace in any County, and Peace Officer, within their respective Jurisdictions, or for any Overseers or Conservators of roads, to seize or impound, or cause to be seized or impounded, any swine or beast which shall be found wandering on any public road, and in case the sum of five shillings, and the expences of impounding and detaining the same, shall not be paid within four days after impounding the same, to cause such swine and beast to be sold, and out of the money arising from the sale thereof, to pay such penalty and expences of impounding, keeping and selling the same, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner; notice of such sale, in which shall be inserted the names of the Parish and Townland, where such swine or beast was seized, being first posted up in some conspicuous place in the Parish where seized, and at the place where impounded, forty eight hours at least before the time of sale."

70—And be it therefore enacted, "That no House or part of a House, shall be built within thirty feet of the centre of any road, or within fifteen feet of the sides thereof, (except in streets or corporate towns) and that if any person shall build begin to build, or proceed in building any house or part of a house, within such distance, every such person shall forfeit the sum of ten pounds, and the further sum of twenty shillings for every week afterwards, until the same shall be pulled down or removed; to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace aforesaid."

71—And be it further enacted, "That no Lime-kiln, shall be built within one hundred feet of the centre of any public road, and that it shall be lawful for any Grand Jury as aforesaid, or Justices at a Sessions of the Peace, to direct any house or lime-kiln, built or building, contrary to this or any other Act hereby repealed, to pull down, and to issue orders to any constable or constables for that purpose, which every high or other constable shall aid and assist in executing."

72—And be it further enacted, "That the centre of the road within the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to be the centre of the part thereof made with gravel or small stones.

73—And be it further enacted, "That if any person shall wilfully destroy, pull up, deface, or injure any mile stone, mile post, or direction post; or any bridge, battlement, wall, railing, mound, or fence, erected or repaired by Presentment, or shall wilfully break, deface. pull down, or take away stones out of any such bridge, &c. built or repaired by Presentment, he or she shall forfeit for every such offence, upon conviction, by the oath of a credible witness, before a Justice of the Peace within their jusisdictions, or upon view of such Justice of the Peace, such sum not exceeding five pounds, as such Justice might think fit."

85—And be it further enacted, "That the Contractor or Contractors, for keeping any part of any public road in repair, shall have all the powers given by Law to any Overseer or Conservator of the roads, and shall be deemed the Overseer of all parts of the road, for which he has or shall contract, during the continuance of such contract."

82—And be it further enacted, "That all fines and forfeitures inflicted by virtue of this Act, if not immediately paid, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by Warrant under the hand and seal of a Justice of the Peace, together with all expences attending the levying of the same; all such fines, unless otherwise especially directed by this Act, shall when levied and paid, be given, one half to the informer, and the other half to the poor of the parish wherein the offence shall have been committed; and that in case any fine be not immediately paid upon conviction; it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace before whom such conviction shall have been made, to commit the offender to gaol, there to remain without bail or mainprize, for any time not exceeding three months, or until the fine be paid.

Ordered—That our County Printer, do prepare, print and forward to the Magistrates at the Petty and Road Sessions in each Barony, as soon as possible before each Road Sessions; a sufficient number of Abstracts of the Applications for Presentments for Spring Assizes 1835—also, copies of the Notices to account for Presentment Money, in order to enable them to judge of the necessity of the Public Works applied for, and to ascertain, if those intended to be accounted for have been properly executed.

Gaol Report.

THE Board of Superintendance of the County Limerick Gaol, appointed under 1st & 2d Geo. IV, Chap. 57, Sec. 29, submit the following Report to the Grand Jury:—

The Board have not commenced the building of the Female Prison, presented for last Summer Assizes. The plans and alterations approved of by the Inspectors General, so as to combine a residence for the Matron, Wash-house, and School-room, with the necessary classification and accommodation of the Female Prisoners, have been laid before the Lord Lieutenant, pursuant to the 20th sec. of the Prison Act of GEO. 4th, cap. 74, for his approval, on the 31st May last.

All Prisoners not sentenced to hard labour, and all before trial fed by the County, have been employed at their trades. or at some industry, for the benefit of the County, under the superintendence of the Governor.

Mr. Sands, Local Inspector, has absented himself from the Gaol since the 5th of April last, as will appear from his journal; but it has not been attended with any loss or inconvenience to the establishment.

The daily average of Prisoners from last Spring to this Summer assizes, is 130½

The daily average for Summer 1833, was 111½

The daily average in Hospital, Summer 1834, is 5

For Summer 1833,..... 5¾

The daily average of dietary, is 3¾ pence.

Presentments required at this Assizes, viz:—

For half years salary for Governor of House of Correction,	£150
The maintenance of the Prison,.....	700
Transmission of Prisoners, ...	20
TOTAL, .	£870

Diocesan School.

THE Grand Jury of the County of Limerick, assembled at Summer Assizes 1834, having taken into consideration the correspondence which has passed between Committees appointed by previous Grand Juries, and the Board of Education upon the subject of the District School, for the Dioceses of Limerick and Killaloe—have agreed to the following Resolutions:

Resolved—That we concur with the former Committees and with the Board of Education, in the opinion, that in the Limerick District School, Free Education should be provided for a certain number of Scholars.

1st—That a Committee consisting of the following Gentlemen, viv:—Viscount Adare, Hon. Wm. O'Grady, Sir Aubrey De Vere, Bt. John Croker, Esq. Wm. Mousell, Esq. and William S. O'Brien, Esq. shall, as Representatives of this Grand Jury, approve of the Plan and Estimates of the proposed School House.

2d—That the management of the District School and appointment of a Local Committee for its superintendence, be left to the Board of Education, on their entering into an agreement, to allow the nomination of Twelve Scholars to the Grand Jury of the Co. of Limerick.

3d—That the qualification of the Candidates, shall be ascertained by examination, and that moral character and proficiency, shall constitute the grounds of admission, without reference to religious distinctions—the Scholars not to be admitted before the age of Ten, nor to continue in the School after the age of Sixteen.

4th—That as from a letter dated May 31, 1834, from the Secretary of the Board of Education to the Lord Bishop of Limerick, as Chairman of the Committees appointed at the last Spring Assizes, there seems to be a prospect, that this long pending negociation will be brought to a satisfactory conclusion; we hereby present and authorise our County Treasurer, to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, the sum of £1400 (Irish) which which was presented by former Grand Juries for the erection of a District School House, upon receiving instructions in writing to that effect, from the Committee hereinbefore first named, or any four of them.

5th—That it be an instruction to our Committee, that they shall not direct the issue of the money by the Treasurer, until they shall have been fully satisfied, that the Schoolmaster is removeable, in case of departure from the agreement herein proposed.

6th—That for the purpose of preserving a record of the agreement made between this Grand Jury and the Board of Education, the above-mentioned letter from Mr. Quin, together with the foregoing resolutions, shall be printed in the County Book, as well as any other additional documents which the Committee already named, shall think it desirable to insert.

Resolved--That the Treasurer of the County Infirmary, be instructed to produce on all future occasions, the details and vouchers of the expenditure of that institution, for the satisfaction of the Grand Jury, previously to any Presentment being submitted for its support.

Resolved—That it is our opinion, that officer of the County Infirmary, ought not in future to be assembled upon the committee of management.

A. De Vere, Foreman.

EXTRACT

Of the Act of the 49th Geo. III, Cap. 84, Sec. 23.

"AND WHEREAS, there are some Counties, which either have no County Book, or in which Book, no Manors, Parishes, or Denominations are inserted, or in which the contents of all or some of the Manors, Parishes, or Denominations are not specified, and no usual or regular rate has prevailed, so as to give official knowledge to the Treasurer, and enable him to insert agreeable thereto, the portion which each Manor is to pay; be it therefore enacted, that in all or any of such Counties, it shall be lawful for the Grand Jury at the next Assizes, after the passing of this Act, or at any subsequent Assizes, to form a table of the names of the several Parishes, Manors, and Denominations, and the contents of each, in any Barony or Half Barony, the Manors, Parishes, and Denominations whereof, with their contents, are not contained in the County Book. And the Treasurer of such County shall cause public Notice to be given thereof throughout such Barony or Half Barony, by ordering the Collector, High Constable or Sub-constables, to post a copy of such table on the door of each Church, within such Barony or Half Barony, and on the door of every Market House therein, thirty days at the least previous to then next ensuing assizes, requiring all persons who may think themselves aggrieved by such table, to appear before the Grand Jury at such then next ensuing assizes, and such Grand Jury at such assizes, shall proceed, if they shall think proper, to examine such persons as shall so appear upon oath, (which oath such Grand Jury is hereby empowered to administer) respecting such table, and any objections thereto; and it shall be lawful for such Grand Jury, at such last mentioned assizes, to amend such table as they shall think fit, and to present such table either as originally formed or amended as aforesaid, to be the table by which the several Manors, Parishes, and Denominations in such Barony or Half Barony, shall in future be proportionably rated, for the purpose of levying all money to be raised thereon under presentment of Grand Juries, and the names of such manors, parishes and denominations, with the contents of each, shall be inserted in every warrant to be issued thereafter, by every Treasurer of any such County, to any Collector as aforesaid in like manner, as if the same had been contained in the County Book, or otherwise, according to the provisions of said recited act."—36th Geo.
