OBITUARY

MRS. H. HAYES.

With very deep regret we announce the death of Mrs. Hannah Hayes, 79 O'Connell Street, Limerick, relict of Mr. Edmund Hayes, which took place at her residence on the 1st inst. after a long illness borne with true Christian fortitude and patience. The late Mrs. Hayes was a lady of gentle and charming personality and although her passing was not altogether unexpected the news of her death came as a profund shock to a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who held her in deservedly high esteem. The deceased lady was a native of Lixnaw, Co. Kerry, being a member of an old and highly respected family, but had lived in Limerick for the greater part of her life. The possessor of many endearing qualities, through her charitable disposition she was ever ready to help her less fortunate fellow-citizens, and outside the immediate circle of the bereaved family she will be missed most by the poor of the city. Deepest sympathy is tendered to her sons and daughters on the great loss they have sustained.

The late Mrs. Hayes was mother of Lieut. E. M. Hayes, McKee Barracks, Dublin, and the National Bank, Castlebar; Mr. Michael Hayes, of Messrs. J. Laird and Co., Limerick; Mr. Dermot Hayes, Production Manager, Condensed Milk Co., Lansdowne, Limerick; Mr. T. A. Hayes, Coras Iompair Eireann, Limerick, and the Misses Katherine and Joan Hayes.

The remains were removed to St. Michael's Church on Wednesday evening of last week. Solemn Requiem Mass was offered up for the repose of her soul on Thursday and the funeral took place the same day to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. On both occasions there was an extremely large cortege of sympathisers, which testified in no small way to the esteem in which the deceased was held by all sections of the community. Large numbers of floral tributes, Mass cards and telegrams were also received.

The officiating clergy at the graveside were:—Very Rev. Dr. Cowper Adm., St. Michael's, assisted by Rev. Father O'Sullivan, Rev. Father White, Rev. Father Lyons, Rev. Father Moynihan, Rev. Father O'Donnell; Very Rev. Father Roche, Rector, Sacred Heart Church; Rev. Father Barragry, S.J.; Rev. Father Adrian, O.F.M.; Rev. Father Collins, O.P., and Rev. Father Ormonde, O.S.A.

The chief mourners were:—Edward, Michael, Dermot and Tom (sons); Katherine and Joan (daughters); Mrs. D. Hayes (daughter-in-law); Mrs. J. Walsh, Mrs. T. McElligott, Miss J. Kennedy, Mrs. K. Shanahan, Mr. P. Ryan, Miss H. McEvoy and Mrs. J. Kirby (relatives).

In the interval to our first tie at Ennis in the Munster Championship, or at Tralee, our hurlers have got several test games for the testing of the old players and the introducton of new blood. Next Sunday, the 13th, they meet Galway at Nenagh; on the 27th at Fermoy they clash with Tipperary, and on the folowling Sunday at our Gaelic Grounds they again clash with Tipperary in the semi-final of the Thomond Tournament. These games give our selectors and leaders great scope.

Drawback.

Some of the selected hurlers are not turning up in the clashes and there is no more serious way of injuring a county selection than this regrettable fault. It is rumoured that some are not travelling on Sunday. I hope the rumour is not correct but that every player will be in his place on the Nenagh pitch. We have the material and it is too bad if the chances are not given to shape it by suitable tests and a little training.

Correspondence.

I am getting letters about suggested players for the county team from writers who do not give their names and addresses. I cannot quote such anonymous suggestions in this column. Surely Gaels should understand that any correspondence in the Press should carry its authenticity.
