MAN SUCCUMBS TO INJURIES

a result of having been ked down by a motor lorry at adoyle, near the city, at 11.50 on the 26th July, Patrick ahon, 42 Carey's Road, Lime- died last evening in Barring- Hospital.

e deceased was admitted to the ital in an unconscious condition was suffering from severe head ies.

ed 57 years, he was a married with a family.

inquest will be held by the ity City Coroner, Mr. J. S. eice.

REGATTA HIGHLIGHTS

CAL CREWS DID WELL

ne Limerick annual regatta yes- ay was somewhat spoiled by rmittent showers. Nevertheless sport was good and many es stayed at home.

he ladies' outrigger race caused ch interest, while the maiden its event provided most of the tement as the ten crews went by rington's Pier with St. Michael's ntaining the lead to the end.

here was admiration for Mr. k Price, a well-known local rtsman, who in his 48th year, ked the A.B.C. "B" maiden it in an emergency.

RPORATION SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

his year there were 45 entrants the Secondary School Scholar- os offered by the Limerick Cor- ation. In a keen competition the 10 scholarships, the follow- boys, all students of the Chris- Brothers' Sexton St. Schools, e the winners:—Thomas O'Shea, rick W. McLoughlin, Sean Tuite, el M. McNamara, Liam O Flan- dha, Reamonn Mac Mathgh- na, Patrick Considine, Aibhistin Aodhagain, John Webb and rai O Maolmhuaidh.

ORDAINED IN ROME

mong three Irish Augustinians ained in Rome this week is Rev.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jones, Mallow St., Limerick, is described by the Bournemouth "Daily Echo" as a two career girl. She is a nurse at Cornella Hospital, Poole, and is also becoming well known as a singer. In an open competition at Portsmouth Musical Festival she won first place, and with it automatic selection as soprano at the Festival of Britain musical section in the Albert Hall, London, next year. Miss Jones was educated at the Presentation Convent, Limerick.

Mr. Sean Meany, aged 22, of Limerick City, who is described in New York newspapers as a "hit singer." Mr. Meany was an elevator operator in the Pent House Club, New York, when the manager heard him singing at his work. He put him into a show as a gag, but he became the success of the night, and was soon signed for many engagements.
L.L. Photo.]

LIMERICK GIRL'S POST IN LONGFORD

Miss Maureen Sexton, D.E.I., "Moin-a-Lin," Castletroy, Co. Limerick, has been appointed by Longford Vocational Educational Committee as permanent whole-time teacher of domestic science in the Technical School, Longford. Her friends wish her much success in her new post.

SHANAGOLDEN GIRL'S SUCCESS

Miss Rita O'Connell, a pupil of the Shanagolden Vocational School, was congratulated by the Limerick County Vocational Education Committee last Tuesday on having passed the entrance examination

Sunday next.

The feast day will be sole with all the reverence and befitting the occasion, and emn High Mass at 12 o'clo sermon will be preached b Rev. Dr. Gleeson, Bishop o land, Australia, while Most Dr. P. O'Neill, Bishop of Li will preside.

Most. Rev. Dr. Gleeson w side at the evening devotio the sermon will be delivered Gerard McDonnell, a member Redemptorist Community.

THE "IRISH PI

TO LEAVE LIMERI TO-MORROW

Owing to the seamen's which ended yesterday at th lin docks after lasting fo weeks, the Irish Shipping pany's vessel, "Irish Pine," w up for several days at the L Port after her cargo had b charged.

The termination of the im the Dublin port means t "Irish Pine" will sail again row.

It is expected that the cr take up duty either to-nigh to-morrow (Saturday) and the vessel will go direct treal, Canada.

There will be also a com of passengers on board.

DEATH OF MR. JAME

A prominent Limerick C ness man passed away on day night at his residenc View," Ennis Road, in the p Mr. James Ray. The decea had been in failing health past two years or so, was a of Richard Ray & Co., Ro a firm founded by his fat was also connected with t rick bacon industry. A ver able and widely respected c took a great interest in r his young days, and was a and useful oarsman for Boat Club. His death re very good type of citizen, join in tendering sincere s to his bereaved widow, other relatives.

MEDICAL POST

Dr. Henry J. Bugler, of