The Ford of the Light (Eng.) -- The Inhabitants.

Situated on the boundary of Green and Aglishcormick parishes, at the union of the tds. of Boherroe, Garrynagoord, and Longstone, and on the road from Pallasgreen to Caherconlish.

It was the ford on this road prior to the making thereon of the small pipe or gullet, and it took its name from light once seen in the night passing that way from Rathcree, which is a small distance away to the North.

Aglishcormick	-- Inhabitants	14
See parish name. J. O'D.
Situated in the E. point of the Glebe of Ballynagally.

It is a small burial place in a cultivated field. It is about 86 feet long and 50 feet wide, and is surrounded by the form of a ditch now mouldered away. Its surface is green, with a few small stones standing in it as headstones; but it is not now much in use except for children.

15

Cros a' Leachta, the cross-roads of the sepulchral monument. J. O'D.

Crossalaghta

-- J. O'D.

Situated in the middle of the East boundary of the td. of Ballyphilip, and between same and Milltown Td.

It is the cross formed by the road from Pallasgreen to Herbertstown and another branching off at right angles eastwards, and leading to Kiltelly. It takes its name from some large stones there, called in Irish a "Leacht", signifying "a sepulchral monument".

Cloverfield National School

-- Inhabitants

16

Situated in the extreme N.E. corner of Garrynagoord Td., and about 3 chains S. of Ahansollis.

This school was built in 1835 at the expense of about £180 by the parishioners. It is two story high, and in it are daily taught from 100 to 30 boys and from 80 to 20 girls. The Master is paid £8 per annum from the Board of Education, exclusive of about £10 from the scholars, and the Mistress is paid £8 also from the Board, along with about the same sum from the scholars. It is expected that both salaries will soon be raised to £12 each from the Board. The scholars are all Roman Catholics.
