

left at 19/6, and a few at 37/6. Great value. Further supplies—if indeed available at all—will be at least 50/- each.—GALBRAITH'S TOY-SHOP, Upper Ceoll Street.

WANTED—Pony, Trap and Harness. Send prices and particulars to Box No 290 this office. (241)

FURNISHED Apartments; quiet, comfortable house; every convenience; suit married couple; Ballincorra district. Apply by letter to Box No 295 this office. (2313)

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, DEATHS

Announcements of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, not exceeding five lines, which must in all cases be fully authenticated, are charged 4s 6d each. Additional line 6d extra.

BIRTH.

EATON—December 28, 1920, to Nola, wife of R. N. Eaton, Roslyn, Dunderg, a son.

MARRIAGES

HALSTEAD and WHITAKER—December 27, 1920, at St. Michael's Church, by the Rev. Chancellor Waller, Gilbert Halstead, of Todmorden, Yorkshire, to Elizabeth Jane (Lillie) Whitaker, daughter of Mr and Mrs Samuel Whitaker, Roche's-street, Limerick.

LAW and WHITAKER—December 27, 1920, at St. Michael's Church, by the Rev. Chancellor Waller, Wilson Law, of Todmorden, Yorkshire, to Henrietta May (Etta) Whitaker, daughter of Mr and Mrs Samuel Whitaker, Roche's-street, Limerick.

DEATH.

DUKE—On the 24th December, 1920, at 17 Upper Mallow-street, Margaret Mary (Madge), beloved wife of George F. Duke. Funeral took place from St. Michael's Parish Church to the family burial-ground, St. Munchin's Cemetery, on Sunday, 26th December, 1920 R.I.P.

LEWIS & LIMERICK

BOOK-KEEPER—Young Lady and salary to Box

APARTMENT—room, with enoe; bath (h & o terms moderate.

SMOKE Nestor class Virginia 1/6 per ounce—NESTOR BROS., O'Connell Street.

STONED RAISINS—Peel, Xmas Grapes, Oranges, & street.

LOST LUGGAGE—wrong luggage Xmas Eve. Please Summerville Terrace, 1

LADY BOOK—owing to late whole or part the highest references. 296 this office.

CHEAP AGAIN—1s 6d and 2s Appricots, 2; 9d to Chocolates, Figs, & street.

COCKERS—For Pups—App office.

DISENGAGED—also a Gentle servants of all class H P m'de, General to train.—Hawker'

LADY can have private san Church C, Apply 34

CANNON