INSTITUTE OF MERCY.

THE SISTERS OF MERCY, in the name of the Sick and dying Poor, beg to express the most lively gratitude for all the assistance so kindly and so benevolently given at the late BAZAAR. To the following Ladies who presided at Tables they feel deeply indebted for their generous and zealous exertions—exertions which they are happy to say have been (owing to the clarity of a benevolent Public) successful enough to place in their hands the means of relieving a portion of the very great destitution which prevails at this indelicate season:—
 Lady Mayoress, Mrs. Wm. White,
 Mrs. Payler, Mrs. Honan,
 Mrs. H. Hawley, Mrs. Captain Keane,
 Mrs. Sleeman, Mrs. O'Neil,
 Mrs. C. Powell, Mrs. P. Griffin,
 Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Fetherstone,
 Mrs. John White,

The Sisters beg to express their thanks to Mr. SEYMOUR, for his kindness in giving the use of his Rooms on the occasion.
