

At Winchester, the wife of Captain Turlis, late 60th Rifles, of a son.
 At Malvern House, Sydenham, the wife of the late Captain E. J. Upton, 26th Cameronians, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

At Rathmines Church, Dublin, John Joseph O'Callaghan, Esq., to Eva Ghiza, eldest daughter of the late John Higgins, Esq., of Clonmel.
 At Kill Church, James Ryan, Esq., of Foulksra Castle, co. Kilkenny, to Lucy, only daughter of the late William Coegrave Esq., of Dublin.
 At St. Mary's Church, Kilkenny, John Lumsden, Esq., of the Provincial Bank of Ireland, son of John Lumsden, Esq., of Muiryfold, Banffshire, Scotland, to Florence Isabella Gordon, seventh daughter of Andrew M'Kean, Esq., manager of the Provincial Bank, Kilkenny.
 At Laccab Church, Queen's County, Matthew Henry Franks, Esq., of Westfield, Queen's County, to Gertrude Priscilla, youngest daughter of the late Capt. George Despard, R. M., co. Meath.
 At Manchester Church, James Sexton Simonds, Esq., of Dublin, only son of Professor Simonds, to Annie Guy, second daughter of the late Thomas H. Spence, Esq.
 At Killowen Church, Thomas Banfield, Esq., of Shinagh House, to Anna, eldest daughter of Robert Popham, Esq., of Mabeg House.
 At St. Patrick's Cathedral, New Orleans, Mr. Richard Molony, of Garteau, co. Kilkenny, to Miss Julia Kreig, of New Orleans.
 At St. George's Church, Hanover-square, London, T. Frederick Elliot, Esq., son of the late Right Hon. Hugh Elliot, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Admiral Sir R. H. Bremley, Bart.
 At St. Andrew's the Great Church, Cambridge, Francis de Lisle Jun., Esq., late of Dublin, to Bessie, eldest daughter of George Whitmore, Esq., merchant, of Cambridge.

DEATHS.

On the 8th inst., at 5, Pery-square, in this city, Miss Lizzie Anne Fitzgerald, aged 15 years.
 At Tipperary, Margaret O'Shaughnessy, mother of the Hon. John O'Shaughnessy, of Australia.
 At Watercourse Mills-road, Cork, Ellen, wife of Alderman Keller.
 At Pope's-quay, Cork, Mrs. Mary Quinlan.
 At London, Francis, eldest son of the late Wm. Quilter, Esq., formerly of the Mall, Tralee.
 At Monkstown, co. Dublin, Elizabeth, relict of the late Hugh Henry, Esq.
 At Dublin, Mr. John Moore.
 At Elphin, Edward Sloane, Esq., brother of the Rev. J. Sloane, G.C., Roscommon.
 At Dublin, Anne, daughter of Mr. John Schreiber, of Westmoreland-street.
 At Clonmore Glebe, Kate Anna, third daughter of the Rev. Wm. A. Dobbyn.
 At Lower Pembroke-street, Dublin, Robert H. Owen, Esq., Q.C.
 At Leeson-park, Dub'ln, Mr. John Wood, formerly of Dame street.
 At Capel-street, Dublin, John, eldest son of Mr. Angus Mackenzie.
 At Earsham House, near Chichester, Sir John Ralph M. Huskisson, Bart.
 At Copenhagen, Lady Harriet Hagemann, widow of Gen. Hagemann, and sister of the Earl of Buckinghamshire.

the Civil Service; the known first-class grinder have been purpose The Boarding certain number can be only a school but a home children—every want all will dine with the Clergy will exercise constant supervision and studies. They will a first-class Tutor, resident in instruction may continue with all possible care for the parents propose for them. this manner not be confined extend to every part of the establishment, while, the home, every attention is part. A respectable Matron of the younger boys. It is that, under the direction of Clergymen, children will be grounded in the principles of Faith. The House No. 1, Corner of Crescent, is peculiarly fitted up at considerable the above-stated school is lofty, well-lighted and very healthiest quarter of the city from the top to the ground rough repairs, papering and attached, in which children creation. In order to put the described above, which shall be within reach of the middle of middle school, The charge will be only The first-class English Education and French. For English, French, & Classics The Boarding School, with the advantages above stated under the immediate direction and constant supervision of Clergymen, with the advantage of a Resident Tutor, all attention to temporal effort, Reductions made for two the same family. All monies to be paid quarterly Other particulars known JOSEPH BOURKE, or Rev. Lower Hartstonge-street, Dublin, Jan. 9.