

MR. PHIL. ROCHE, during the time that considered it useful to the Country, having bought Oats for Exportation, he on finding late Crop proved bad, and apprehending a city may follow, declined buying any since middle of October last, he has reserved a quantity in his Lofts for the purpose of supplying the Citizens of Limerick, at the cost any time the Mayor may think proper to sell for it. Limerick, Jan. 12, 1786.

MR. ROCHFORD, anxious to prevent the late uneasiness or apprehension of a Scarcity of Corn, in consequence of the great Export of Oats this Year; begs leave to inform the Publick, that he has long since acquainted the Mayor, of his having a considerable quantity of Oats at his disposal, which he still has, and will continue to hold during the Season for that purpose. Limerick, Jan. 12, 1786.

MR. LYONS willing to contribute as far in His power to remove the Apprehensions the People with respect to a scarcity of Corn, hereby assures the Publick, that he will deliver on his lofts, Thirty Tuns of Oats, during the ensuing Summer, which he pledges himself to dispose of to his Fellow-Citizens at the Cost, in case any scarcity should happen. He thinks it necessary at the same time to assure them, that he has not purchased One half the quantity that any other Gentleman in the Business has done.

MATT. HONAN, Wishing earnestly to convince his Fellow-Citizens, that he has not engaged in the Corn Trade with the Smallest View of Incommoding the Publick, hereby pledges himself to them, that he will keep thirty Tuns of Oats in his Stores, until the 1st day of June next, which shall until then, be at the disposal of Sir Christopher Knight, if it should be found necessary for the Use of the Publick. He begs leave to assure the Publick, that the insinuations contained in said Advertisement, are FALSE, and could only proceed from Motives peculiar to the Character who inserted it. Mr. Lyons refers his Character and Reputation, as a Merchant, to the Publick, and the Utility he has been of to the City of Limerick, during the many years he has been in Business, and whether He has not been always ready to relieve the Distresses of his fellow Citizens, on every occasion.

The present Mayor was informed, by Mr. Lyons, that if he apprehended any Scarcity, he recommended to him, to set on foot, a subscription for the purpose of purchasing, and laying up a sufficient quantity of Corn, for the relief of the Poor, (a mode adopted by a former Worthy Chief Magistrate, &c.)
