MY DEAR SIR—I duly received your communication of the 24th December, which I intended to have acknowledged in person, as I expected to have been in Limerick before now, but being informed that it was customary to thank a Company for prompt admission of a claim, I now beg leave through you, to return my thanks to the SCOTTISH UNION COMPANY, for the promptitude and liberality with which they have admitted my claim in this instance. It was only what I anticipated from their character, and was not at all necessary to confirm the very high estimation in which they are held in this country.

I remain my dear Sir,
Your's very faithfully,
