THE WEATHER.

After the dry and favourable weather of the past week the wind shifted to the south-west overnight, and this morning there was a return of the rain. To-day the conditions were unpleasant, the atmosphere being thick and murky, and the outlook does not promise well. During the afternoon rain fell heavily, and along the valley of the Shannon, which has fallen considerably, flooding is still extensive.

THE LATE MAJOR MAUNSELL.

The funeral of Major Munro Maunsell, of 10 Galtrim road, Bray, took place privately on Tuesday morning from his residence, after service at Christ Church, to Enniskerry. The late Major Maunsell served in the Royal Munster Fusiliers, retiring about 20 years ago. One of his sons was killed in the great war, in which for a short period the late Major also served.

The deceased was the only surviving son of the late Major Francis Edwin Maunsell of Kildimo, County Limerick.

DEATH OF MASTER MARCUS HARE.

Numerous friends in city and county will deeply sympathise with Mr and Mrs George Hare, 5 Ballinacorra Terrace, on the death of their second youngest son, Marcus, which took place at his parents' residence early this morning, after an illness of some duration. He was a bright and winsome boy and a general favourite. Remains will be removed this evening at 7.30 to St Michael's Catholic Church. Funeral to Mount St Lawrence to-morrow (Friday), after 10 o'clock Mass.

ASSAULT ON CIVIC GUARD.

The Mary Street Civic Guards have taken into custody a second man named Cleary, on a charge of being concerned in an attack on Guard Byrne while on patrol duty in Thomandgate district on Friday morning last. Patrick Creagh who was arrested on Monday evening in connection with the assault has been remanded, and both accused will be charged at the City District Sessions to-morrow. The injured Guard is now practically recovered but is still in hospital.

CITY CYCLING ACCIDENT.

A married woman named Sheehan, residing in Thomas-street, has been admitted to Barrington's Hospital suffering from injuries to the head and side, caused by being knocked down by a cyclist. At the time of the accident the woman was crossing High-street, and her injuries were regarded as serious. She is, however, making favourable progress towards recovery.

What promises to be an interesting and instructive lecture, "Pages from a Russian Diary," by a Refugee, will be delivered at the P.Y.M.A. Literary Class to-morrow evening.

are hopeful of putting up a good fight, as the selected players—some of whom show evidence of great skill—all are animated with a desire to win. Such a victory, if it could be achieved, would do much to promote chess in the city and county, and add considerably to the prestige of the Munster Chess Association.

Play will begin at 3 o'clock, and all interested are invited to attend. Admission will be free.

THE IRISH MOTOR AGENTS' ASSOCIATION.

Limerick Executive.

A general meeting of the above Association was held yesterday at Cruise's Hotel, Mr Wm Christy presiding. The members present were—Messrs Guerin, Clancy, Geary, Halvey, Hayes, Qainlan, McDonogh, Myles, Cusack, with the following representing the county—Messrs Hartnett, Swiney (Newcastle West), Legear (Adare), O'Sullivan, Lyons (Kilmallock). J. F. Walsh, Limerick, Hon Sec.

Letter of apology was received from Mr O'Donovan for non-attendance.

Important matters were discussed. Applications for membership were considered; one new member was admitted, and it was decided to hold a general meeting on the first Wednesday of each month.

ATTEMPTED BUGLARY CHARGE.

Two men named Bendell and Long were arrested on Tuesday night by Detective Murphy on a charge of attempting to break into the premises of Messrs Sexton and Son, Auctioneers, Thomas-street, on Monday night. The accused were brought before a Peace Commissioner yesterday and remanded to City District Sessions on Friday next.

ARREST AT NEWCASTLE WEST.

Our Newcastle West correspondent says:—A young man named Michael Ambrose was arrested yesterday in Newcastle West by Civic Guards on a charge under the Public Safety Act, and was later conveyed to Limerick Jail. The arrest has created a sensation in Newcastle West, as Mr Ambrose belongs to a highly respected family. It is understood the charge is connected with an agrarian dispute.

THE LATE VERY REV CANON KIRBY, P.P.

The Month's Mind for the late Very Rev Canon Kirby, P.P., Patrickwell, was held to-day in Lurriga Parochial Church. The Bishop, Most Rev Dr Keene, presided at the solemn Office and Requiem High Mass. The celebrant was Very Rev Canon Griffin, P.P., Adare; deacon, Rev Fr Connolly, Adm, St John's; sub-deacon, Rev Fr Carroll, Adm, St Michael's, and master of ceremonies, Rev Fr Carroll, C.C., St John's.

TOURISTS WITH £40,000,000.

Statistics drawn up by the touring offices put the number of Americans who visited France in 1923 at 135,000 and the money they spent at more than £40,000,000. The figures for 1924 are higher owing to the Olympic Games,
