Mr. Barton is making all the necessary preparations for forwarding to Parliament a petition against the under return of Fitzstephen French and O'Connor Don, for Roscommon.

Lord Lorton has addressed a letter of thanks to his numerous tenantry in Roscommon, for the noble and steadfast manner in which they stood to his Lordship's interest at the recent election.

Sir R. Musgrave, M. P. has given £10 to the Mendicant Asylum of Waterford.

A system of exclusive dealing is enforced at New Ross, to injure those electors who voted for Mr. Charles Tottenham, the Conservative candidate. A counteraction is now prepared by Mr. Tottenham's friends.

A noisy mob paraded the streets of Nenagh, on Friday night, and compelled some of the inhabitants, under fear of injury, to illuminate their windows for the return of Messrs. Sheil and Otway Cave, for the county Tipperary. The police should protect the respectable householders from such intimidation.

Yesterday morning, about six o'clock, the shop and concerns of Mrs. Hanrahan, George-street, by the greatest good fortune were saved from destruction by fire—a quantity of newly roasted coffee having heated in the bin, and the surrounding timber work grew burning hot. The fire was smouldering for a considerable time before a discovery took place, and had there been any vent or current of air, it is most probable the whole premises would be involved in destruction in half an hour. As it was the watchman and shop-boy, with assistance, were enabled to suppress the danger.

The body of a countryman named Patrick Flynn was discovered near Springfield last Sunday, by a party of military and police from Newcastle, who were ordered to assist the Coroner in holding an inquest. The unfortunate man, it since appears, died of wounds inflicted in a party fight at the last fair of Newcastle.

Mr. Lubie of the Education and Census Inquiry Commission, went to the City Court-House yesterday, to receive returns of the population, number of persons frequenting the places of worship, and the schools in each district. A few Roman Catholic Clergymen attended, but the matter excited no interest whatever.

Thursday night last, four stacks of wheat, the property of a respectable farmer of the name of Twomy, (who holds a large tract of land under Richard Ash, Esq. of Ashgrove, and another from Mr. Massy,) in the parish of Clondrohid, and within three miles of Macroom, were burned to the ground, by some lawless ruffians who are as yet unknown.

An accident occurred to Mrs. Hehir, the wife of Mr. James Hehir, of Ennis, publican, a few nights ago, by which she has been very severely burned. She was drawing spirits from a small cask, with a candle in her hand, and the spirits ignited, which set fire to her clothes.

Thursday night, Mr. William Pattison, of Cillertane, near Dunmanway, had returned from the County Cork election, and, being much fatigued, had retired to bed with his family, when, about four o'clock on Friday morning, he was disturbed by a cry of "Fire!" Immediately on rushing out he dis-
