To the Electors of the Co. of Limerick.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE I had the Honor of Addressing You, some matters have Occurred which induce me to declare that if I am so fortunate as to be again Honored with your Confidence, I shall go into Parliament perfectly Independent and Unfettered by any tie except that of Gratitude for the repeated Honors you have Conferred on me, and I have to assure you, that no Situation I am placed in shall prevent me from performing my Duty to my Constituents, particularly on any vital Question concerning Ireland.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your devoted and obliged humble Servant,

WILLIAM ODELL.
