DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, at his father's house, George-street, after a long and painful illness, during which he was mercifully supported by the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through the merits of his Saviour, Charles Thomas, the beloved son of the Ven. William Wray Maunsell, Archdeacon of this diocese.

At Great Malvern, Worcestershire, to the inexpressible grief of her family, Catherine, the beloved wife of Major James Dannielle, of the Company's Service (now serving with his regiment in India) and daughter of the late Matthew O'Brien, Esq. of Newcastle. Her demise is a source of the greatest affliction to a large circle of relatives and friends—tempered, however, by the assurance that her mortal has put on immortality, as she bore a long and painful illness with that resignation which can alone influence the heart at peace with God, through faith in the atoning sacrifice of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

At Springfield, Scariff, on Saturday night, Mary, youngest and dearly beloved child of Charles Wallnutt, Esq, aged two years.

Captain Thomas Gallwey, British Consul in Naples, uncle of Thomas Gallwey, Esq, JP, Killarney.

In Mary-street, Mr John Nunan, clothes broker, an old inhabitant of the parish.

At Alexandria, on his way home from India, Orlando F O Bridgeman, Captain 2d Dragoon Guards, son of Vice-Admiral the Hon C O Bridgeman.

Within one week of each other, from croup, after measles, Maryanne, aged 5 years, Daniel, aged 3 years, and Martin, aged 12 months, the interesting children of Mr Daniel Quilty, of Augustinian-place, in this city.
