

many years experience in Teaching,
 a Situation as GOVERNESS, in a She will engage to teach French and ally, History, Geography, and Writ-ability to fulfil such engagement, the ble references can be given on to be made (if by Letter, Post Paid)
 is Paper.

January 15, 1825.

TO BE LET.

First day of MAY next, for such Terms agreed upon, all that valuable Establish-MENT HOTEL and BOARDING-extensive Stabling, &c. Tepid Baths, &c. &c. at Miltown Malbay, County of concerns are well worth the attention of ated to conduct them upon the above and numerous Visitors during the last urity of the sea air and water, promise to the Proprietor.

tenant has been noticed to quit the First which day possession will be given to be made to THOMAS MORONY, House, Miltown Malbay, and to RO-ERRE, Esq. George's-street, Limerick.

 will be declared on the 20th of March next,
 and whatever will be given but to the present to give the greatest satisfaction to January 15, 1825.

WOODS FOR SALE.

ADDLETON still continues his intention his WOODS, in the County of Water-fully allowing time for the Cutting and of one, before he disposes of another.—
 e, his Lordship will, in the first instance, for all the TIMBER now growing
 of UPPER BALLYMACARBERRY, twenty six Plantation Acres, be the same
 This timber which is principally OAK, quality, and sufficiently convenient to for both Timber and Bark, it being situated miles of the Town of Clonmel, and Ten of r, Dungarvan, and Caber.

to be addressed to the Right Hon. Lord ADDLETON, Park-street, London. And Mr. WILLIAM WELAND, Kildare on, until the 20th of March, 1825.

January 15, 1825.

RESIDENCE

TO BE SET,

Term that may be agreed on,
 PERB RESIDENCE in George's-Street,
 the Corner of the Crescent and of Hartstrongly occupied by the Rev. EDWARD HENRY Concerns are commodious and extensive, ou of Ground capable of being adapted for ings, or for addition to the Premises.
 g-House is fitted up with beautiful &c. and fit for the immediate reception of a respectability. The Offices, Coach-House, a also very good conveniently detached, with ard.

to be made to Mr. DAVID FITZ-GERALD, ge's-Street, who will shew the Premises.
 Limerick, January 15.

TO BE LET,

ON THE 25th MARCH NEXT,
 Or the Interest sold,
 REMARKABLY FINE FARM, HELD BY THE LATE

manner's tuition, or a son.
 In London, the Lady of J. Mitchell, Esq. M. D. of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

On Thursday last at Bruff Hill, Charles O'Brien Massey, Esq. of Griston house, to Anne, daughter of the late James Massey, Esq.

Andrew Risk, Esq. of Lower Bridge-street Dublin, to Mary, second daughter of the Rev. George Franklin, of Kildimo Glebe, County Limerick.

Mr. Henry Sayers, of Fethard, County Tipperary, to Miss Ryall, daughter of the late Mr. Joseph Ryall, of Castel.

At St. Bride's Church, Dublin, William Durham, of Ranelagh, Esq. Wine and Spirit Merchant, to Margaret Catherine, only daughter of the late James Campbell, Rathkenny House, County Meath, Esq.

At Christ Church, Cork, Richard Hanan, Esq. of Mitchelstown, to Martha Catherine, youngest daughter of the late Nassau Massey, Esq. Mitchelstown.

At Rathaspeck Church, the Rev. John James, eldest son of Thomas James, Esq. Ballycrystall, County of Wexford, to Annette, eldest daughter of the late Lieut.-
 General Hatton.

In London, Captain Thomas Atkins, 75th Regiment, to Alice, fifth daughter of Edward Hamerton, of Donycarney, County Dublin, Esq.

Lieut. and Adjutant James Mason, half-pay 11th Regiment, to Miss Eliza M'Kinley.

At St. George's church, Hanover-square, London, Surgeon Keenan, of Kilrush, to Margaret, youngest daughter of Laurence Kenny, Esq. of Newmarket-on-Fergus.

DEATHS.

This morning, in George's-Street, Charles Ormsby,
 Esq. of this City, Burgess, son of the late Arthur Ormsby,
 Esq. and nephew of the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Gort. With truth it may be said, that during the short course permitted him to run, the conduct of this truly amiable young gentleman was such, as to merit and obtain the approbation of a large and respectable acquaintance, by whom he was esteemed and beloved.

Yesterday morning, in Patrick-street, Anne Maria, daughter of Captain Taylor, late of the 28th Regiment.

At his residence in Tipperary, the Rev. Matthew Moore, brother to the late Edmond Moore, of Mooresfort, and uncle to Baron Pennefather.

On Thursday morning, at the house of John Philpot,
 Esq. Prospect-Row, Cork, John Bullen, Esq. aged 24 years, eldest son of the late Rev. Robert Bullen, of Newmarket, County Cork.

In Dublin, the second eldest daughter of Launcelot Machell, Esq. of Aston-quay, of a decline.

In Dublin, of a decline, in the bloom of youth, Jane, wife of Mr. P., of Dame-street.

In North Great George's-street, Dublin, aged 56 years, Miss Frances Hincks.

At Cheltenham, Captain Murray, late of the 22d Regt.

At Blancherstown Academy, Master James Murphy, son of Jeremiah Murphy, Esq. of Hyde Park.

In Dublin, Allan Ruxton, Esq. Attorney.

At the Cork County Jail, Mrs. Murphy, wife of Mr.
 Jeremiah Murphy.

In Cork, Miss Mary-Anne Flaherty, daughter of the late Michael Flaherty, of Daunt's-Square.

Suddenly, Mr. Terence O'Boyle, of Castlebar.

At his house in Dawson-street, Dublin, Geo. Colgan, Esq.

At Stratton, Captain Robert Smith, aged 89 years.

At Maxwelltown, Assistant-Surgeon John Grierson, half-pay 1st Foot.

At Stanmore, Middlesex, Richard Oswald Mason, Esq.

THE MARKETS.

We had an immense quantity of Wheat at this day's Market, which suffered a depression of one penny per stone, prices for Red being from 1s. 7d. to 1s. 9d. per stone; and White, ditto, from 1s. 8d. to 1s. 10d. per stone.—Oats, 10d. per stone.—Best malting Barley, in consequence of the small supply coming to market.