DEATHS.

At Timoline, in this County, Oliver Marshall, Esq. aged 70 years, a truly upright and honourable man.

At Prospect-Road, Stephen Cole Bowen, Esq. son of the late Henry Cole Bowen, Esq. of Bowen's-court, county Cork, originally of the Royal Irish Artillery, and late of the Royal Veteran Battalion.

This lamented Gentleman served with credit in America and the Peninsular war, and held commissions successively in the 9th and 17th Regiments.

At his house in Fitzwilliam-square, of fever, John Croosie Graves, Esq. barrister-at-law, and Magistrate of the Head Office of Police, Dublin.

In Anne-street, Dublin, Capt. Holebrooke, late of the 1st Royals. At her residence Charlemont-street, Dublin, Mrs. Mary Sprole, aged fifty-two years.

Eliza, daughter of Mr. Joseph Irwin, of Dublin.

At Rathmikes, Mr. James Clarke, aged 21 years.

At Rusk, county Meath, Richard Wilson, Esq. in his 81st year. Of apoplexy, at his residence, Silverfield, county Roscommon, Henry Clifford, Esq. aged 60 years.

At Cushindall, Daniel McGillicuddy, Esq. of the Royal Navy, chief officer of the coast guard of that station—one of the family of McGillicuddy of the Reeks, Kerry.

Sophia Olivia, wife of Mr. John Green, Postmaster of Wexford.

At Pope's Quay, Cork, Mrs. Anne Casey, relict of the late Mr. Thomas Casey, of Mallow-lane.

Mr. T. Murray, of the North Main-street, Cork.

On the 13th instant, at the Glamis-road, Cork, Major Francis Creagh, late of the 83rd Regiment, son of Francis Creagh, formerly a respectable merchant of this City.

William Biggs, of Bandon, Esq.

At his seat, Newtown Park, county Dublin, on Saturday last, in his 77th year of his age, John Armit, Esq. Mr. Armit, who was head of the firm of Armit, Borough, and Edington, Army Agents, of Dublin, was a native of Scotland, who in early life settled in this kingdom.

Patrick Newman, Esq. of Cardif's-Bridge.

Lucy, wife of Js. Wright, Esq. of Butterfield House, Rathfarnam.

In the Harleford-road, Mary, relict of the late Thomas Yeakell, Esq. chief draughtsman to the Royal Military Corps of Surveyors and Draughtsmen, Ordnance-office, Tower.

Mr. A. W. Hill Cramer, Professor of Music, husband of Mrs. H. Cramer, of Drury-lane and Covent-garden Theatres.

In the Close, Salisbury, the Rev. Edmund Benson, in his 81st year.

At Brighton, Henrietta Elizabeth, relict of Henry Bowles, Esq. of Cuckfield, Sussex.

At Spitchwick Park, Devonshire, Eliza, wife of Major M'Dougall, late of the 2nd Regiment.

At Woodmans, Herts, Robert Haldane Bradshaw, Esq. aged 76.

In Cheltenham, aged 90 years, Mary, widow of the late Thomas Ryves, of Rathshallagh, county Wicklow.

At Milan, Harriet, the Lady of Sir H. Panlet St John Mildmay, Bart.

At Kingston, Canada, aged 17, Bethea Elizabeth, daughter of Paymaster Ross, 65th Regiment.

At Quebec, Mr. Thomas Bassett.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JAN. 16.

Bank Stock ........................................ 221 1/2
Irish Three per Cent. Consols ................ 90 1/2