the present tax on jauncy, cars almost annihilated that trade; one of the most extensive houses in that manufacture, had, previous to the tax, twenty six forges at constant work—at this time only four! and we are credibly informed there are no less than 120 carriages of various sorts, for sale in one repository in the city of Dublin; which in the present state of things, would scarce bring the value of the iron. A number of industrious mechanics and labourers are, in consequence, out of employment.

Yesterday, in pursuance of the Prince Regent's order, by Proclamation of the 27th Nov the public offices, shops, &c. were closed, and divine service performed in the different churches and chapels in this city, to return thanks to ALMIGHTY GOD, for the termination of hostilities between this country and France.

Saturday last, Mr Richard Studdert, Esq. High Sheriff of the County of Clare, was on his return from this City to his own house. He noticed a man at the hill of Dromoland, who evinced an intention of getting out of his way. This aroused Mr. Studdert's suspicion of him, and setting spurs to his horse, he soon overtook the fellow, whom he immediately recognized as Gerald Lynch, who in the month of April last, murdered the Widow Lardner, at Moy, near Clonderalaw, Co. Clare. Mr Studdert, being armed, secured the delinquent, and had him lodged in Ennis gaol.

On Friday night, three men entered the house of Mr. John Ward, in Crumlin, when having knocked down John Collins (the son-in-law of Ward,) who made some resistance, they succeeded in overpowering them and robbing the house of various articles of wearing apparel, with which they got clear off.

On Sunday evening, about the hour of six o'clock, as Mr. Thomas Saulty, gardener, was returning home, he was assaulted by three men, armed, (supposed to be the same who committed the robbery on Ward) near Mr. Tench's on the Crumlin road, and robbed of what money he had about him, being, in notes and silver near three pounds, with which they made off. These fellows must be residents in the neighbourhood, from the knowledge they seemed to have of his having money about him; as he came along the path way, they bounded out of the adjoining field, knocked him down, and demanded the money he had been receiving from such a person, naming the very man of whom he had just received the three pounds.

About half after nine o'clock on Friday night last, as Thomas Pepper, Esq. of Ballygarth house, near Drogheda, was returning home, his carriage was stopped at the Eighteen-mile stone, by four fellows well armed with pistols, blunderbusses, and bludgeons, and robbed of a quantity of wearing apparel, and a dressing case, in which were deposited several valuable rings and broaches, with which they made off without doing any personal injury—Every exertion is making by the magistrates and gentlemen in that neighborhood to bring these marauders to condign punishment, and we trust their efforts will prove successful. It is the general opinion that these ruffians belong to Collier's gang as it is well known he has returned to his former haunts in the county Meath.

Audacious Robbery—On Saturday morning, a few minutes after eight o'clock, as Mr. Thomas Walsh, innkeeper, from the County of Kilkenny side of Waterford, was on his way to Ross, he was stopped at Carrigeenorra, three miles from thence, by two footpads, who first called for his watch, which he had but just before drawn out, to tell a countryman the hour of the day, and afterwards ordered him to deliver his money. Although one of the ruffians had a blunderbuss, and the other a pistol, Mr. Walsh, unarmed, struggled long and hard, but was at length forced from his horse, knocked down, and maltreated with the butt ends of the arms. His face was severely bruised; the blunderbuss, in the struggle, flashed, but did not go off. By this time, nearly twenty persons had been collected from both ends of the road, and such was their terror, that they allowed Mr. Walsh to be quietly stripped of his watch and £91 15s. and suffered the villains to walk off without molestation or pursuit. We cannot, however, quite so much wonder at the timidity of the spectators, as the impudence of the robbers, who, without the least pains to disguise their persons, proceeded in the face of so many witnesses, to complete this daring felony.
