DEATHS.

In King-street, Waterford, aged 69, Thomas Scott, Esq. President of the Waterford Chamber of Commerce, and Senior Agent of the Waterford Branch of the Bank of Ireland. Monday last he went to the City Election, made a short speech in proposing Mr. Wyse—upon returning home he fell ill, to his bed, and died.

At Cratloe, Mrs. Ryan, mother of the Rev. Mr. Ryan, Roman Catholic Curate of Thomondgate.

At his residence in Jervis-street, Dublin, Mr. George Halloran, son of Mr. Ralph Halloran, of the Queen’s County. This gentleman had served in the British army, on the Continent, during the greater part of the Peninsular war, and was much esteemed by his relatives and friends.

Francis Cruise, of Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Esq. a highly respectable solicitor.

At Lower Abbey-street, Dublin, Mr. William Crean, aged 28 years.

Mary Caroline, wife of John Daly, Esq. of Kilrush-mills, county Kildare, and formerly of Townsend-street, Dublin.

Mr. Michael Brangan, of North King street, Dublin, aged 74 years.

In Marsh-brook, Cork, Lionel, son of H. B. Westropp, Esq.

At Woodbine Cottage, Blackrock, Cork, in his 62d year, James Roche, Esq. for many years a respectable wine merchant of Cork.

At Lackeney Hill, county Waterford, Samuel John, only son of William Henry Barron, Esq.

Of paralysis, Charles Ward, Esq. late 14th Light Dragoons, of Hants, and Holymount, Queen’s County.

Mary, relict of the late Arthur Fleming, Esq. of Ballyhale, co. Carlow.

At Weston, the wife of Charles & Higgins, Esq.

Of scarlatina, aged 17 years. Margaret Anne, youngest daughter of the Rev. Dr. Crawford, of St. Anne’s, Longford.

In his house in Great George’s-street, Cork, in her 31st year.

Eliza, the beloved wife of Mr. Eugene M’Clynn.

At Currabaha, parish of Inniscarra, Cork, at the advanced age of 102 years, Mr. Benjamin Kelly, a man of the strictest integrity.

At Lota Cottage, Cork, Miss. Croker, at an advanced age.

Of an attack of apoplexy, aged 47 years, Andrew D. Johnson, Esq. of Priarstown, county Louth.

At his residence in Banbridge, Mr. Edward Murphy, aged 92 years.

At Rathmills, Mrs. Margaret Dodd.

At Tommyn, Mrs. Jane Carrick, daughter of the late Mrs. Molony, and relict of the late Dr. Carrick, of the Carlowville Militia.

On board the Annadale, on his passage from Bombay to England.

Captain Maclean, of his Majesty’s 2d or Royals.

Captain G. B. O’Bligh, H.M.’s 9th Regiment, aged 42.

At Tenby, Lewis Bruce, Esq. late major 59th Regiment, and Colonel in the army, born 16th July, 1762, aged 72.

Of sense refined.

Who felt each worth, for every work he had,
Serene, yet warm—humane, yet firm his mind,
As little touch’d as any man with bad.

At Hooker’s Inn, near Cheltenham, the eldest daughter of the late John Finlay, of Cork, co. Dublin, Esq. by the late wife, Elizabeth, relict of the late James De Burg, of West Drayton, Middlesex, and Gaultonville, county Westmeath.

At Coombe House, Surrey, Princes Ann, relict of the late Right Hon. Michael Angholo Taylor, Esq. aged 68, for many years a Director of the Bank of England.

At Bath, aged 76, Lieut.-Colonel Walter Caulfield Lennon.

At Heavitree, John Whitlock, Esq.

In Bath, Mary Ann, wife of Captain Rowland Mainwaring, R.N.

At Dunkirk, Rd. Gethin, Esq. Captain h.p. 96th Foot, and eldest son of Sir Percy Gethin, Bart. of Percy-manor, near Sligo, Ireland.

At Lanesanne, Henry A. Cetjat, Esq. late Lieutenant-Colonel of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

In Calcutta, Captain G. K. Battie (Hon. Company’s Service), of St. Mary Abbots’ terrace, Kensington.

At Stony River, Lieutenant J. A. Erskine, 48th Regiment.

At Madras, Ensign L. Johnson, 61st Regiment N.I.

SUGARS.

The usual large capital returns thanks to the present Lady who sent 120 copies, 12 binders, 12

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

WOOL.

REQUEST and ADVICE.

PRICES changing so rapidly, and unprecedently high.

They flatter us, but we are 3d. above what they sell Cotton.

From their涨 prices, commerce, which, with their own manufactures, whose interest the public.

The most satisfactory way of commercial confidence,

Arrived this week.

2 3 Cheap

WITH BAILS OF COTTON.

WILSON.

WILL have the honour to offer a second selection of

WILSON has the honour to offer a second selection of

THE NEW GARDEN TREES, as set out with to time to arrive at

Turnip, Giant

days more days more days more days more

Wilson is able to offer supply, having nurseries for 10 years, prices having run

A catalogue of the species lately chosen is

Wilson is at his establishment, own propagation, the Scotch.

Oak, 1,000,000

Dutch houses.

Beech.

N. B. A handbill containing a complete catalogue, will be had for ten pence.