IN THE COURT FOR RELIEF ON INSOLVENCY

GEORGIA,
fourth daughter of the Bishop of Chester.

At St. Helena, William Alexander, Esq., son of the Bishop of Meath, to Miss Janet Dallas, eldest daughter of the Governor and Commandant of that island, and niece of Sir T. Dallas, G.C.B.

DEATHS.

At his house, in Chelsea-street, Dublin, in advanced age, the Right Hon. James FitzGerald, father of Lord FitzGerald and Viscount, and member of the Irish House of Commons.

At his house, in Chelsea-street, Dublin, in the 83rd year of his age, Lieut.-Colonel Donaldson, formerly of the 9th Dragoons.

At her house in Merrion-street, Dublin, Mrs. Elizabeth Waller, Esq. of Allies-town, county Meath.

Frances, wife of Joseph Pollock, of Hardwicke-place, Dublin, On Tuesday, aged nine years, of hooping-cough, John, only son of Captain Miller, of Ennis.

In Ennis, Mr. Thomas Raleigh, cloth-merchant.

At the residence of her mother, in Rochestown-Avenue, Samuel Mathew, fifth son of the late Capt. Daniel Corneille, aged 17 years.

At his brother's house, Henry-street, Cork, Robert Forsyth, Esq., youngest son of the late Rev. John Forsyth.

In Ennistimon, suddenly, Mrs. Finucane, relict of the late Mr. M. Finucane, of that town.

In Denny-street, Tralee, aged 73 years, Mr. Jeremiah Lynch, attorney-at-law.

In Newry, Mary Catherine, daughter of the late Thomas Hanlon, of Drogheda, Esq.

Jane, daughter of the late Rev. Alexander Henry, of Castletown.

At Balbriggan, of a decline, aged ten years, Elizabeth Belinda, daughter of Thomas Mahon, Esq. of Bellew, county Galway.

At Drogheda, county Louth, Mary, wife of John Brinkall, Esq., late of the 9th Dragoon Guards.

On Saturday last, at his house, William-street, after a protracted illness, his brother with truly Christian piety and resignation, Mr. John M'Cormick, of that town.

The Rev. Edwin Stock, Esq., of Crossmolina, Mayo, caused by a fall from his gig:

In Upper Mount-street, Dublin, at the house of her son-in-law, W. D. Harrar, Esq., Mrs. Hannah Gally, aged 77 years.

In Sylph-place, Dublin, Margaret Eleanor, wife of Henry Cunningham Kelly, Esq.

In Fleet-street, Dublin, aged 23 years, Mr. John Hamilton, printer.

In Dublin, Samuel Bruce, Esq., aged 72 years.

In Upper Camden-street, Dublin, Mrs. Elizabeth Foster.

At epilepsy, at Bootenstown Avenue, Mrs. Lecky, resident of the late Averell Lecky, of Castletown House, county Antrim, and daughter of the late Hyacinth Daly, of Galway, Esq.

In Rathmines, Clonmel, Mr. James Lalby, printer.

In the last year of her age, Mary, widow of Robert Bradshaw, Esq., of Alton, county Tipperary.

At his residence, Hyde Park-place West, London, in the 63rd year of his age, the Right Hon. Thomas Charles, Earl of Portmore.

In Sussex-place, London, the Hon. Mrs. E.C. Fletcher.

In Montagu-street, Russell-square, Augustus, the infant son of George Crawfaff, Esq.

At Camberwell-grove, Surrey, Sarah, wife of Thomas Kingsley, Esq., aged 43.

At Port Eliot, Lady Susan Lydon, daughter of the Earl of St. Germans, and Lady of Colonel Lydon, M.P. for Worcester.

At the house of his son, the Rev. Henry Glossop, the Vicarage, Jowsey, Francis Glossop, Esq., aged 95.

On board the Dreadnought, Caroline, daughter of Lieutenant Bowers, R.N.

At Ballycastle, Kent, Carr Cumler, Esq., aged 100 years and ten days.

At Dover, Adelaide Charlotte, youngest child of Henry Welch, recently of his Majesty's Customs, London.

At Cathay, Lieut. Alexander Hope, of the 77th Regiment, son of the Hon. Sir Alexander Hope, of Waughton.

At Calcutta, Captain Henry Mansell, of his Majesty's 39th Regiment, and Aid-de-Camp to the Governor-General.

At Madeira, William Findlay, Esq., late of Quebec, Lower Canada.

Limerick.

A general meeting of the Mechanics' Institution was held at Williams-street, on Thursday last.

The following resolution was moved, and carried:

Proposed by Daniel McNulty:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute is to be highly considered for the opportunity of introducing the poorer classes of society to the possibility of making useful habits.

Proposed by John O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.

Proposed by Mr. O'Brien:

Resolved—That the Mechanics' Institute which has hitherto languished in the midst of the Empire, by giving more power.