

Ireland since last August, with the one drawback, the absence of our noble I know him, and can say that there is more sincerely devoted to this country rundel—(hear)—no lsy Catholic more posed to defend you; and in selecting representative, you placed me in very npany: he stood by us in Parliament, and battles. Mr. Reynolds then proceeded to alars connected with the opposition given a Brigade" to the Ecclesiastical Titles bill, to Duke of Newcastle, Lord Aberdeen, Graham, and others called Tories, for their he occasion, and who, he said, he believed e, were better Whigs than those who ne. The "Irish Brigade" were the only oyed his confidence in the House of Com- speaking of the matter he should not mention the great support he had received colient county representative, Mr. Wm. heers.) He ridiculed the bill of "pains s," which he designated "Lord John Rus- m bull, with one horn, afraid to look at colour of a Cardinal's hat) for fear it em him" (laughter.) After impressing the fighting the battle of nationality at the ions, he related a conversation which took en him and a member for an Irish borough, e of which, on being upbraided for neglect amentary duties, and told he would not be gain, said "I'll come out this gull them;" this he believed many entatives intended to do. (hear.) Ireland honest representatives—a dissolution of is at hand, and the battle would have to n the hustings, as no registry will take fter next October (cheers.) n, MP. was next called on, and having ceived with cheers. He said it was not his ave spoken at the banquet, particularly h having been said upon a subject in which terested. He did not think there ought ach vain boasting about what had been making sacrifices, for fidelity to the faith or mother—in defending the Church to ecestors were attached for 300 years— his opinion the sacrifice would have been is duty—(hear, hear.)—He was never e who voted with her Majesty's Govern- he interests of friends would require. heir places firmly and independently on the benches, giving their votes according to ence (cheers.) man then gave "a speedy and legitimate of the relations between landlord and eland, which so vitality effect all interests try." Mr Quade, Callaghan's Mills, responded. toast was "the Catholic Defence Associa- ick the Very Rev Dean Coll responded. untly Representatives" was then given from nd briefly responded to by Mr Monsell, e wished to contradict a report which he had been circulated, namely, that in the an election it was his intention to f for another place. He had no notion thing of the kind—as long as the consti- e county Limerick stood by him he would th, (cheers.)

William Roe, Jun. Esq. of Mountain, to Maria, daughter of the late H. Maybury, Esq. Killarney. Surgeon Burton Crosse, 31st Regt. to Emma, daughter of Wm. Snell, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 27th inst. Emily, sister of the late Sir Richard Franklin, M.D. and the beloved wife of Henry Woodburne, Esq. Governor of the County Limerick Prison. From a very early period of life religion was the primary object of her thoughts, and the Gospel her sole guide in discharging the various duties of daughter, wife, mother, and friend. It was the will of Divine Providence to afflict her with an unusually severe and protracted illness, during which her patience and resignation were of the most cheering and exemplary character. When at length called away from her sorrowing family and friends, she left to all the pleasing remembrance of faith unfeigned and piety unalloyed, and quietly passed in the full confidence of hope, to that happy sphere where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

Yesterday morning, at Prospect House, near this City, after a lingering illness, Mary Ann, the beloved wife of Michael Dawson, Esq. Alderman, and sister of the late Rev. John Clarke, of St. John's, to the deep and lasting regret of her family, who will long remember the amiable though unobtrusive virtues of a good wife and mother.

Yesterday, aged 23 years, Eugene, eldest son of Eugene J. O'Kelly, Surgeon Apothecary, of this City.

At Tivoli Gardens, Cork, in her 79th year, Hannah, relict of the late John Newsom, one of the Society of Friends.

At Myrtle-hill Terraces, Cork, Alicia, relict of the late John Hudson, of Dungarvan, county Waterford, Esq.

At Glenbrook, Passage (West), at the age of 88 years, Edward Barry, Esq.

Geraldina, daughter of the late Hatton Couron, Esq. of Grange, county Cork.

George Porter, son of Stevens Goff, Esq. Castle Hill, Ennis-corthy.

At Seafield, Sligo, Kate, daughter of William Phibbs, Esq.

At Middleton, Mr. Thos. Varian, aged 77 years.

At Clonmel, Mr. Thomas Danks, coal merchant.

At Sligo, Anthony C. Sidley, Esq.

At Wynnefeld, Rathmines, Sarah Eustace, daughter of the late Thomas Fox, Esq.

In Blessington-street, Eliza, eldest daughter of late Walter Henry Mansfield, Esq. of Yeomanstown, county Kildare.

Eliza Susanna, daughter of Mr. Charles Sharp, Aungier-st. The Rev. F. M'Nally, R. C. Curate of Enniskillen.

At Clara, county Down, Mr. Robert Carille, aged 93 years.

At Campsie, Wm. Jones, Esq. Lieutenant of the London-derry Militia.

At Elgin, Captain William Biddulph, late of the 45th Ben-gal Native Infantry.

At Cladville, Islay, Robert McGown, son of Francis Borland, Esq. and grandson of Dr. Borland, Inspector General of Army Hospitals.

At Bath, Mary, relict of the late John Gough, Esq. Surgeon R.N. aged 73.

Innell William Clements, Esq. many years proprietor of the Morning Chronicle, Bell's Life, and Observer.

At Penzance, the wife of Richard V. Davy, Esq.

At Ainslie-place, Edinburgh, the Hon. Ann, widow of James Strange, Esq. H.E.I.C.S. and daughter of Henry, first Vis-count Melville, in her 85th year.

The Rev. Mother of the Good Shepherd, Hammersmith, Madame Marie St. Joseph de Rigandiu.

Sister Mary of St. Stanislas (Miss Eliza Daniel), late Superior of the Convent of the Good Shepherd, Dalbeth, near Glasgow.

At Burnham, Somerset, in the 80th year of her age, Mrs. King, widow of Dr. King, Bishop of Rochester.

At Davidge Terrace, Lambeth, R. Billington Comins, only son of the Rev. Jonas Comins, St. Peter's Cathedral, Exeter.

Paul Algernon Sidney, Esq. of Harrington-square, Hampstead-road, aged 77.

At Stonhurst College, the Rev. W. Waterton.

At Woolwich-common, John Read, Esq. late of the Ordnance Department, at the advanced age of 94.

At Montreal, Jane Newman, relict of Mr. Richard Hall, of Kinsale.

At Spring Bay, Hobart Town, William Morgan Underwood, Esq. M.D. son of the late Rev. Thomas Underwood, Rector of Ross and Canon of Hereford Cathedral.

At Jamaica, of cholera, Mr. John Fraser, and Mr. Edward Lawson, brother of the Rev. G. H. Lawson.

Of wounds received in action at Lagos, west coast of Africa, Henry Hyde Hall, mate of H.M.S. Niger, son of Lieut. Samuel Thomas Hall, R.N.

At San Francisco, Martin M'Nulty, merchant, Arthur M'Sweeney, John M. Cassel, John Blake, Leonard Bagley, Daniel M'Keenan, the wife of Thomas Connolly, Martin Murphy, James M'Carthy, William Hurst, John Synan.

engaged to Calve of May; six 1½ y sold on the same d full particulars, to the above Reposit. The seller to pa and the purchaser When sales are on Cattle sent in t MICH. P.S.—The Grea will be held on the the Great Monthl day of each month intervene of which Jan. 21.

Hartigan's

HARTIGAN'S will be held therefore parties l for the above sale once, as the entry order to have cata the principal Hor in Great Britain. No Horse shall does not appear i

Jan. 17.

Steam

TO A CALLIN (With liber The Limerick "EUROPEAN "SECRET," WILL keep t this and L will sail during t From "European"

From L "Secret," Sa Goods received Tooley-street. These Vessels L accommodation fo great advantages London. Fore Cab For Freight or Office, Wellesley Messrs. Ogilby, M Ingram Cour Mr. George Seym Mr. Henry Gran