

to shield them from the se inevitably exposed to.
impossible for us to estie or injury sustained, but heard, it must amount to ely a house has escaped roofs and chimneys, being r wholly or partially.

The Fever Hospital fell in the roof, a heap of rubbish et of the patients' beds.
Stotherd's house in Mallown the roof of that and Mrs. t providentially both famisplendid stores of John N. ch on the roofing, many gables having been wholly e storm.

on the bodies of the two nd Hanah Shea, at the t of "accidental death,"

City several farmers houses prostrated to the ground; s uprooted in gentlemen's mense.

w the North Strand is torn ded for miles inland. The covered, and a man of the as drowned this day, whilst fields.

r this afternoon, the squalls orth, preceded by showers some of the firmest houses, continue.

urred to the Dublin Mail mill, when the driver was e road by a gust of wind, proceeded on for two miles il Counsellor Reid, one of f, and arrested their career yke. No injury happened e driver.

it has been similar in its nuary, 1839, which inflicted shipping in Limerick to the The ravages of this day, nsive, nor the loss of life so le period.

at no port in Ireland is so e flush or swell of a western water, for which there is an below Meade's-quay, and rcy to the lives and property ok to this. After the vast and the great increase in afety harbour provided for ost wanted, of any part of the late Major Leaviss, of Newcastle-on-Tyne.

At Tottenham, Henry Powell, Esq. M. D. of Lankton, near Tunbridge Wells; to Mary Sophia, daughter of James Eyre Watson, Esq. Tottenham, Middlesex.

At Tormahun, Devon, the Rev. F. S. A. Gawthorn, of Long Eaton, Derbyshire, to Semima, daughter of the Rev. S. Statham, of Torquay.

In St. Peter's Church, Isle of Thanet, Robert H. Dolling, Esq. son of the Rev. Boughey W. Dolling, of Magheralin, county of Down, to Eliza, daughter of the late Joseph Dupre Alexander, of Stone House, Kent, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Kilfrush, in this County, on Thursday morning last, Caroline, third daughter of Joseph Gubbins, Esq. This amiable young Lady bore a long, painful, and wasting illness with pious resignation. Her death is deeply lamented by all her family, and by her numerous friends.

On the 21st inst. at Flesk Priory, near Killarney, the infant child of the Rev. Robert H. Maunsell.

At Finnoe House, near Borrisokane, the seat of his brother, Thomas Waller, Esq. at the age of 71 years, Captain John Waller, on half-pay of the 88th Regiment, and retired Adjutant of the City Limerick Militia; a gentleman eminently conspicuous for his courteous manners, polite deportment, and highly honourable bearing throughout life.

Suddenly, of apoplexy, in South Main-street, Cork, Mr. Richard Nagle, apothecary.

From an attack of croup, at Glenonore, James Laurence, only son of the Rev. John Rogerson Catter, Rector of Innishannon.

At Morrison's Island, Cork, Mr. John Pearce, proprietor of the late "Cork Mercantile Chronicle."

At Drumrany, the Rev. James Fagan, P. P. aged 90 years.

At his residence, Royal Canal Terrace, Francis Harrison, Esq.
In Belfast, Anna, eldest daughter of the late John Young Crozier, of Killyleagh, Esq. Captain and Adjutant of the Royal North Downshire Militia.

Georgina, daughter of William Carpenter, Esq. Nenagh.

At Stratford Cottage, county Wicklow, Rebecca, wife of Nicholas William Heath, Esq.

At Westport, Margaret, wife of Richard Levingston, Esq.

Catherine, daughter of Mr. James Del Vecchie, of Westmereland-street.

In Lower Dorset-street, Elizabeth, relict of Philip Pearson Tracy, Esq.

At the Barracks, Castlebar, at an advanced age, Barrack-Ser-jeant Rance, leaving a large family to mourn his loss.

At Rosanna, Roundtown, Mary, wife of John Fottrell, Esq.

At Dowry-square, Clifton, Judith Elizabeth, wife of the Rev.
Horatio N. Ormsby, late Curate of Innishannon, and now Officiating Minister, pro. tem. at Long Ashton, Gloucestershire.

At the residence of her son; the Rev. Richard Lacey, P. P. of Freshford, county Kilkenny, Mrs. Lacey, aged 90.

At Kearneyville, Parsonstown, Richard Kearney, Esq. aged 69.

At Beverston, Roebuck, the residence of his brother, Wingfield Hicks, Esq. aged 30.

Suddenly, at the residence of his mother, Upper Gower-street, in his 34th year, George James Gordon, late Captain in the 79th Highlanders, son of the late George Gordon, Esq. of Croughty, Banffshire.

At Boulogne, Jane, daughter of Colonel Nathen Wilson, K. H. late of the 4th Light Dragoons.

In Paris, in the 84th year of his age, Leonard Gillespie, Esq.
M. D. R. N. one of the oldest Physicians in the service. He was Physician to Lord Nelson, and Physician-General to his fleet.

Mary Ellen, daughter of Mrs. Todd, Ashton-street, Liverpool.
At Boxmoor, Mrs. Mary Carey.

At Piccadilly, Mrs. Elizabeth Franklin.

Richard Mountford, Esq. of Shiffnal, Salop, in his 71st year.

In Bond-street, James Evans, Esq. late Garrison Surgeon at Chunar, East Indies, aged 51.

At Vauxhall, Mr. Joshua Hill, aged 80.

At Sion College, the Rev. R. Watts, A. M. Rector of St. Alphage, London-wall, Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Librarian of Sion College.

At his house, Harcourt Terrace, Lalla Marcella, wife of the Rev.
Thomas Scott.

Maria Elizabeth, second daughter of Edward V. Alcock, Esq.
Upper Pembroke-street.

tions and Recognizanc within Fourteen Day are bound to do, pursu 34, sec. 6.

"Clerks of Petty
with this Regulation Pounds in each Case."

By C
M.

County Limerick Pe
29th January,

N. B.—The Form of cate, required to Regi
the Clerk of the Peace

NOTICE.—PERRY STANDS.—Grea

been made in the m
PATENT PERRIAN
Patentees can complete for general and simplicity in its opportunity to announ their Inkstands. witho apply the present imp preceding sorts, at 2s returned for the above

Manufactory, 37,
TES

It preserves the Ink evaporation—excludes at any moment gives Filtered Ink.—Courier

It possesses the adv
preserving Ink for alm

One of the most use day that has come un Herald.

We have tested the have every reason to trial.—Atlas.

It is really most inge degree liable to get ou

Very ingeniously con the Ink at a uniform le dip of the Pen.—Morn

The Inventors of the completely remedied t
mon Inkstands.—Char

An Invention trul
purifying the Ink thro
ent to serve for im Standard.

The Inkstand we that ever came under the desideratum of pr preventing it evaporat
dust.—Morning Adver