DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, after a short illness, at Brough, the residence of her son, aged 93, Catherine, relict of the late Thomas Bennett, of Brough, Esq.

In St. James's, to the deep regret of his very interesting wife and young family, Edward Sargent, Esq., Lieutenant half-pay, of the 3rd Light Dragoons, a gentleman possessed of many amiable traits of character, frank, manly, and generous, of the most captivating social qualities and agreeable manners.

In Charlemont-street, Dublin, Mary, widow of John Mansfield, Esq., Supervisor of Excise.

In Dublin, after a long and severe illness, Harriette, wife of J. R. Byrnes, Esq., solicitor.

At her house in Granary-row, Dublin, Mary, second daughter of the late Wm. Paisley, Vaughan, Esq., of Goldengrove, King's County.

At Arches, Irish, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Henry Sands, Esq., Under Treasurer of the Hon. Society of King's Inns.

In Church-street, Ens, Mr. O'Flynn, coachman.

In jail-street, Ens, of decline, James, son of Mr. John Fianagin.

In jail-street, Ens, Mrs. Cavanagh, wife of Mr. James Cavanagh, publican.

Her death was occasioned by her clothes taking fire from the accidental igniting of spirits.

Mary, wife of John Kearney, of Mitlow House, co. Meath, Esq.

In the Newtown, Mayo, Mary Anne, wife of Mr. O'Connor, Esq. of a decline, in his 36th year, in Athlone, George, son of Thomas. James Sproule, of Longford, Esq.

At Dublin, Royal Barracks, Mary, wife of Sergeant Major Bannery, of the 3rd Dragoon Guard.

In Dublin, Mr. Charles Moule, formerly of the 18th Hussars, and late of the 7th.

Thomas, youngest son of the late Thomas Purcell, Esq., of Sunday's Well, Cork.

At the Cove of Cork, after a lingering illness, sincerely regretted by his family and friends, Robert Langford, Esq., late of Greenpark, near this City.

At his lodgings, Nile-street, Cork, Mr. Thos. Finn, aged 64 years.

At her residence, Clarence-street, Cork, Mrs. Moorehead.

In Waterford, Jane, wife of Jas. Ormsby, Esq., Surveyor of Excise.

At the Chapel-house, aged 64 years, the Rev. Charles Reynolds, Parish Priest of Carrickmack, county Longford.

In Easton-square, London, at the age of 33, P. M. Hilliard, Esq.

In Finsbury-circus, London, Mary, widow of Philip Van Cortlandt, Deputy Barrack-Master General in the Colonies.

At Cheshunt, John O'Donnell Travels Hill, Esq., son of Lloydt, Esq., formerly of the 3rd regiment, and of Ballycurren, co. Cork.

At Surrey, Lieut.-Colonel Hugh Sutherland, formerly Captain of Her Majesty's 73rd Regiment, and afterwards in the service of Dowgit, Shindia, aged 69 years.

At Plymouth, of a few hours' illness, John Pennycook, eldest son of Major Pennycook, of Bellardie, Pembrokeshire.

At Windsor, near Liverpool, Mr. John Wilson, up to 40 years a shipbuilder at Liverpool.

At Clifton Lodge, Berkshire, Isabella Anne Kemeys, only child of the present, and grand daughter of the late Sir Wm. Cooper, Bart.

At Calke Hill, Godalming, Mrs. Elizabeth Palmers, aged 80.

At Walton Priory, near Liverpool, aged 74, Mary, wife of George Case, Esq.

In a coach at Colne, "the Yorkshire youth," known as "Fat Dan," his weight was thirty-one stone!

At Yelwall, near Mysore, Major Henry Wiggins, of the 36th Madras Native Infantry.

At Elsberry, near Haarlem, Charles Louis, Baron de Tilly.