LOCAL RAILWAY FARES.

The Great Southern and Western Rillway Company have issued their programme of tourist and week-end excursions for the aumeer and autumn months. There is, so far as this city is concerned, an all round increase of fares. The third class week end fare to Kilkee, which used to be five shillings from Limerick, has been advanced to seven shillings and eightpence, and as well as one can see there has been a general revision of the fares in question, and which have been in existence for years, increased priors being put in the stead of the ones for last year and previous years.
