The story of Limerick’s ancient Baal’s Bridge

An interesting and very unusual watercolour of the ancient Baal’s Bridge that spanned the Abbey River.

Self-help plan welcomed by Council

LIMERICK County Council, at its recent meeting, discussed a Department of Local Government scheme for the building of houses on a co-operative group basis and the members welcomed the idea.

The Council’s interest in the building of houses for co-operative groups was evident when a motion was moved by Mr. P. H. Morris, seconded by Mr. J. O’Connell, that a proposal be made to the Housing Aid Association for the building of houses on the Ballonagh Road. The motion was carried.
