

also
Ordinances of the Duke of Devonshire, 257.
Mention murdered vacant worth prewith nt to holic ciety which
M.P.
Mens'
Don-
ning, sions l for t of nder
also
'Cal-tler
t of the the nclu-ater-cep-mainnday
miseral,
pub-
the
the nting diers itals have ment ares man-ance
h ocn set-ls 6d
oney,
that been eding lling, half-nd of ote of pora-apel, dical
f J.
Dis-essor y on 13th, 19th,
day,
ded
No
ence ates lare-
d. it dis-from

DEATHS.

In Dublin, on Monday, rather suddenly, John O'Brien, Esq. of Elmvale, county Clare, late M.P. for this city, and brother of Sergeant O'Brien, the present city representative. The unexpected death of Mr. John O'Brien is a source of deep affliction to his family and friends, whilst his former constituents deplore the loss of so truly honorable and noble minded a gentleman, who, for nearly ten years zealously and faithfully discharged his Parliamentary duties with advantage and benefit to the country.

This day, at City-place, to the deep regret of her attached family, Mrs. Douglas, the beloved wife of Colonel Douglas, Adjutant General of this district.

Last night, in George's-street, Barbara Cotter Lloyd, daughter of the late George Lloyd, Esq. JP, Mount Catherine, county Clare, and grand-daughter of Colonel Cotter.

At Roche's-street, of hooping cough, on the 5th inst. Jessie, the youngest daughter of Mr. Richard Miller, coal merchant. Her remains were interred this morning at St. Munchin's church.

In Nenagh, from gont in the stomach, Patrick Carroll, Esq. many years County Inspector of Constabulary for the North Riding of Tipperary.

At Bruff, Sarah, eldest daughter of Samuel Bennett, Esq. MD. Thomas Wade Foot, son of the late Thomas Wade Foot, Esq. Springfort, county Cork.

At his house, Nelson-street, Tralee, Michael Murray, Esq. aged 73.

In Tralee, aged 77. Miss Catherine Collis, daughter of the late Thomas Noble Collis, Esq.

In Barronstrand-street, Waterford, Miss Anastatia Eaid.

At the house of Mr. Michael Costello, Ballingarry, Mr. Francis Haly, of Cork.

Suddenly, at her lodgings in Shannon-street, on Monday morning, Miss Eliza O'Malley, daughter of the late Mr. James O'Malley, book binder.

In Youghal, on the 21 inst. aged one year and 8 months, Thomas, son of P. Kennedy.

Mr. Patrick Hannigan, Ennis; and Margaret, mother of Mr. Martin Dillon.

In Clonmel, Mrs. W. B. Cooper.

In Kilmeena, the Rev. Thomas Moran, RCC of that parish.

At Ballymoyer house, county Armagh, Marcus Synnot, Esq.

At Cuda house, aged 76. Mrs. Evans, widow of Capt. Robert Evans, RN. and daughter of the late George Nesbitt, Esq. Woodhill, Donegal.

At Warrenpoint, Francis Royroft, Esq. late Tide Surveyor HM. Customs, Cork.

At Morne rectory, Kilkeel, county Down, Marie, wife of the Rev. John Close.

The Rev. James M. Field, Presbyterian Minister of Glennon, Glasslough.

In Upper Mount-street, aged 84, Mary, relict of the late Richard Phibbs, Esq.

Aged 84, Louisa, relict of the late Dr. Heron, Primrose hill, Lucan.

At the Carmelite Convent, Aungier-street, Dublin, the Very Rev. Edward O'Rourke.

In Dublin, Mr. G. Higgins, of Hillsborough, co. Kildare.

In Lower Sherrard-street, Thomas Gill, Esq. late Collector of Inland Revenue.

Suddenly, in Leinster-road, Rathmines, Hallwood Clarke, Esq.

Sarah Matilda, wife of Christopher G. Carroll, of Waterloo Buildings, Dublin.

At Summer-hill South, Thomas Busted Seymour, Esq. son of the late Nicholas George Seymour, Esq. late of Mourne, county Cork.

In Pembroke-quay, Mr. James Geraghty.

In Lower Clanbrassil-street, the wife of Mr. Peter Hornidge.

At Meaford, Staffordshire, the Viscountess St. Vincent.

In Hawley-road, Kentish-town, Major John Hay, RM.

Emily Eliza, daughter of Lt-Col. Henry Clayton, 4th Bengal Lancers, aged 17 years.

At Doddiscombsleigh rectory, Devon, aged 85, the Rev. James Buckingham, late of Burrington, Devon.

Francis Hurst, Esq. chairman of the board of guardians of the Chesterfield union.

In Hamburg, aged 84. Joshua Israel Brandon, Esq.

Henry Walshman Aspinall, son of John T. W. Aspinall, Esq. of Standen hall, Lancashire.

At Marine parade, Brighton, Miss Sarah Rogers, Hanover-terrace, Regent's-park, aged 83.

In Portman-square, Elizabeth Wilson, daughter of the late Lt-Col. George Russel Deare, 8th Hussars.

At Southsea place, Bath, Michael Scott, Esq. Paymaster and Purser, RN, aged 76.

In Jersey, E'iza Lucy, daughter of the late Major James Mason, 77th Regt.

At Parkgate, Cheshire, Mary Ann, widow of Charles Green, Esq. and daughter of Col. J. Henderson, KH, unattached.

At Clapton, Hackney, Joshua Watson, Esq. DCL, aged 84.

In Montagu-place, Russell-square, Sir John Muir Mackenzie, Bart. of Delvine, Perthshire.

In Bathford, William Briscoe, Esq. solicitor.

In Hackney road, aged 83, John Fish, Esq. late of the Consol-office, Bank of England.

In Brighton, aged 75, Mary Frances, widow of the late John Fitzgerald, Esq. Boulge hall, Suffolk, the Little.

In Brompton, Garrett Sheridan, Esq.

William West, jun. of the Clarendon-road, Notting-hill, and of the Stock Exchange.

At Woodhill, Bury, Lancashire, Richard Walker, Esq. late MP. for that place.

At Alton, in Hants, the Rev. Mark Henry James Kerr, of Winslow, Bucks, son of the late Lord Charles Kerr.

In Cambridge terrace, Col. Thos. Leighton, Bombay army.

At Prince Edward's-terrace, Clifton, from the effects of a severe fall, Roderick O'Counor, Esq. barrister-at-law.

In Devonport, Quartermaster Bovey, South Devon Militia.

At Cluny castle, Inverness-shire, NB, Mrs. Macpherson, sen. of Cluny Macpherson, aged 82.

Mr. O. Smith, of the Adelphi Theatre.

In Glasgow, Angus M'Donald, Esq. Supervisor of Inland revenue, formerly of Birr, King's County.

At Caen, aged 81, Captain W. Harrison, Castle Harrison, county Clare.

In Constantinople, Charles James Dobre, midshipman of HMS Albion, aged 19, son of Commissary General Dobre.

Of cholera, at Scutari, G. H. Reade, Esq. MD, one of the chief medical officers at the hospital, eldest brother of the late Mrs. Long, Dame-street.

At Balaklava, of Crimean fever, Henry Ulick Burke, Captain 33d. Duke of Wellington's Regt. son of the late Sir John Burke, Bart.

At Scutari hospital, of typhus fever, Assistant Staff Surgeon A. Struthers.

From wounds at the battle of Inkerman, Sergeant Richard Dunkley, 23d Fusiliers, son of Mr. William Dunkley, Dublin.

At Cape of Good Hope, Lieut. Richard Stack, 2d or Queen's Royals, son of the late Charles M. Stack, Esq. Upper Mount-street, Dublin.

At New Orleans, of cholera, Mr. Edward Ryan, the Irish comic actor and singer.

At Sierra Leone, Col. Parsons and Capt. Searle.

493 9 114 650 11 0
Lot
fee-sin
fee-far 26th d
Lot
grant
Lot
Sign
Is situ
town o on the will be about rick, e
six fro and m
of goo warm lent w
Is situ
Shann
quality Limeri
Fergus
quay,
a mile obtain
Is com tillage
is situa
Ennis, twelve
one mi
the Ki
Is situ
a valua
part, l acres o
town o tion or Limeri
three,
miles.
Is situ
Lough wide, a miles o Tulla.
expend proved lake, t drainag those known shooti
Is situ within Kildys Limeri
senger
"Fan
coach passing pastur
a mode
an ab ship a Ren
plicati etta-st
M
E
J
W
W
M