lain immediately presented a gun at him, and would have fired it, but for the entreaty of Mrs. Ashe, who was with him. Last Saturday se'nnight, Mr. Florence Brien, of Cappa, near Bandon, unfortunately fell from his horse in a fit, and instantly expired, he is universally regretted by a numerous acquaintance. Scarce a day passes but brings some account of the lawless proceedings of the misguided White Boys, on Saturday night last they went to the house of Mr. James Daltera, near Kilcrea, and there obliged him to give them a gun. From such as have no guns they swear them to deposit gunpowder and shot at certain places, where they regularly call for them. At one house near Blarney, they swore a poor man to bring them to the value of 10l. in those articles. Clonmel, February 20. Committed to jail, the 18 infant, by Robert Ryves, esq; Thomas Newfom, charged on oath, with having on the 13th ult. riotously and unlawfully assembled, with many others, to the number of ten, at Killenaule, and forceably rescuing James Doony, who was carrying to the Jail of Clonmel, for feloniously taking and carrying away six cows, and two calves, value twenty pounds sterling, the property of Thomas Meagher, and William Cahill. The 19th inst. by the same Magistrate, John Higgenbottom, of Templemore, charged on oath, with a strong suspicion of having on the night of the 26th instant, feloniously stolen from off the lands of Clone, one fat wether, value one pound ten shilling sterling the property of Henry Langley, of Brittas, Esq.—
