

the products are sufficient estic needs, but for the erover a surplus exists. e, unemployment in the well as in the cities, but graver problem in the are an opportunity is now whose time hangs heavily devote it to their own e and that of their Free State Government
 when placing the Land on the statute book last provisions are now th in a statement just ial Information Bureau. hat unemployed persons the local authorities with it one-eight statute acre inal rent of something ear for the growing of eeds, manures, and in-will be provided at the te and without imposing e local rates. This, un-y attractive proposition, erest of local authorities heme as much as possible, say, it will be to the inemployed to get the use the very reasonable terms y self-respecting person e dole, and now he is in a useful and remunerative e statement so aptly puts ntage of maintaining the nployed and their physical which are subject to suffer effects of enforced idle-e time there is nothing to nt-holder who spends part e plot—time that would ssly spent—searching for thing hitherto laid before the Cabinet.

WILL OF MRS. BLOOD, WILLOWBANK.

Mrs Agnes Blood, of Willowbank, Limerick, who died on 21st September last, widow of Charles Holcroft Blood, left personal estate in England and the Free State valued at £34,792 14s 11d. Probate has been granted to Fitzgerald Blood of Ballykilty, Quin, Co. Clare, and Frederick Digby Darley, solr., of 30-31 Kildare Street, Dublin.

The testatrix left her interest in premises known as Lyndhurst, Temple Gardens, Rath-mines, to her sister-in-law Georgina Allen, a mortgage of £1,750 to Georgina Allen and her children Mary Rogers and Frances Allen equally, her husband's gold watch and chain to Fitzgerald Blood, her jewellery and personal effects (not otherwise disposed of, to her niece Agnes Lady Warren, knowing she would dispose of same in accordance with her wishes, £3,000 to Fitzgerald Blood, £500 to Holcroft Blood, £4,000 to her niece Grace Cardew-Buckley, £2,000 each to her nieces Agnes Lady Warren and Maud Murrin, £1,000 to her niece Barbara Mac-Gilchrist, £2,000 to her niece the Hon Sybil Atkinson, £500 to her niece Nancy Rogers, £1,000 to her great niece Violet Delmege, £1,000 to her great niece Maude Richardson, £500 each to Inez Cleeve and her nephew Charles Ffolliott, £50 to Daphne Russell, £2,250 each to her nieces Mary Rogers and Frances Allen, £1,000 to her nephew George Frederick Ievers, £500 to Richard Vandeleur Bourke, £500 to the Rev. T. J.
 Westropp, £500 to Frederick Digby Darley, £200 each to her chauffeur Arthur Garaty and her gardener John Walker, if respectively in her employ at her death, £500 each to her cook Annie Todd and her maid Jane Carter, £50 to Delia Sparling, £25 each to her garden boy Michael Hayes and her kitchen maid Dolly Sparling, if respectively in her service at her death, £150 for the benefit of Tom O'Halloran, £50 per annum to Amy Delmege, and the residue of the property to her niece, Agnes Lady Warren.

MESSRS. WM. B. FITT & CO'S who had previously collecting for her. The admission that they amount they were charge not know what attitude adopt in court.

Hickey said that he is explanation of the occur

Inspector Lyons—W any witness, as it wa defendants were adopti In view of their attitude an adjournment.

The Justice adjourned

PUBLIC HEALTH

Francis Hazelbeck, ov in Parnell street, was Borough Council for cau a city sewer.

Mr J. J. Dundon, so tion was brought unde Act. There were three was alleged by the Co different dates the se Parnell street, through Shannon street, were valve by large quantitie consequence of the obstr of the Stella Restaurar water to a depth of one

Richard McNamara, ployee, stated that on t last he found five or six tidal valve, and on larger quantity of gut v nection from defendar main sewer. During h the matter when he en three or four occasions clusion that the stuff ca dant's factory.

Mr A. Blood-Smyth, dant, cross-examined th object of proving that t have been caused by th from other factories.

Corroborative evide another Corporation
 McCarthy.

The defendant denied was caused by the disc from his factory. St valuable commodity, an £800 per ton to him.

In cross-examination