

business has ex-
 as not aware of
 if he were he
 de the statement
 is report to Ald.
 McGuire. I think
 fair answer. We
 hing to an end
 k to have Miss
 n this point. She
 oss-examined on
 y could I cross-
 ters that existed
 not aware until
 ad better get on.
 uestioned the wit-
 rpose of the de-
 y Council to the
 ober.
 that he had no
 f the purpose of
 utation.
 you bound to
 Manager on pur-
 l to do so?—Yes,
 there is any con-
 requested.
 can put a veto
 making purchases
 approval?—I say
 make purchases
 operation of the
 t my knowledge.
 that no materials
 ed without your
 es.
 ing to usurp the
 anager?—No.
 ing to usurp the
 Manager and that
 of this Inquiry?
 with you. Ever
 Limerick I have
 to establish my
CO-OPERATION.
 you stated that
 eration from the
 cluded Banks?—
 ime that Banks
 co-operate with
 October.
 n any order that
 ?—I have no re-
 me he took over
 obeyed every order
 es.
 u say he refused
 have only his
 anks refused to rou?—Yes. The
 m would he co-
 r used words to
ON PAGE 4).

A CITIZEN.

FAVOURING FOREIGN GAMES.

"The Central Council, after mature deliberation, informs us that there is an in-growing of, and preferential treatment for foreign games in the Army. We were grieved at this news and anxiously await the day when the games of the Gael will have their proper place in the land of the Gael," said Very Rev. J. J. Meagher, P.P., at Tipperary G.A.A. County Convention.

ENNIS TURF SUPPLIES.

At a conference of the Clare Labour Party in Ennis anxiety was expressed as to future supplies of turf for poor persons who bought in small quantities, in view of all private lorries being off the road since 31st January. The Great Southern Railway Company was requested to take adequate steps to ensure that there would not be any shortage of turf so far as the poor were concerned.

FAMILY OF SOLICITORS

The fifth member of her family to qualify as a solicitor, Miss Eileen Neilan, was welcomed at Roscommon Circuit Court by Judge Gleeson. She is daughter of Mr. P. J. Neilan, State Solicitor for Roscommon.

HOUSES PUT UP IN A DAY

A report submitted to the British Minister of Works says that, if necessary, there could be after the war factory-produced houses of stressed skin plywood, which could be bolted together and put up in a day.

EXPLOSION AT RAILWAY SIDING

When R.A.F. trucks were being loaded at a North of England railway siding an explosion occurred in a wagon containing incendiary bombs. Eighteen people were killed and 82 injured.

STORM-BOUND ISLAND

The 280 inhabitants of Tory Island, eight miles off the Donegal coast, which had been storm-bound for about a month, were relieved on Saturday. Extra supplies were sent by the relieving boat.

intervals, while the city and province were in deep mourning for their beloved Governor.

PATRICK AHERNE.
 Ballygeele, Newcastle West.

WEE BEAUTY ARRIVES IN LIMERICK

Wee Beauty, the smallest pony in the world, arrived in Limerick on Monday evening and on the way to its private stable attracted the attention of a large crowd of spectators. The pony is being shown at Messrs. Todds, Limerick, in aid of L.D.F. funds. Among those who met the pony on arrival at Limerick was Mr. Martin McGuire, Executive Officer of the 49th Rifle Battalion, Limerick City L.D.F.

When shown in Ennis last week practically the entire population of the town saw and admired the wonder pony. Very Rev. Canon Quin, President of St. Flannan's College, Ennis, was an early visitor to the local Town Hall, where the pony was on show and he expressed his pleasure and amazement at such a "living toy."

TOWN "JOINED IN"

When Tintulla house and lands, comprising 218 acres, were put up for sale in Thurles, the local Golf Club made every effort to secure them. They decided to seek financial support from the townspeople by way of debenture issue. In a few hours a sum of £2,500 was raised and the house and lands were bought by the club at £6,100.

CLONMEL GAS SHORTAGE

The supply of coal in Clonmel has become so acute that the Gas Manager has issued a statement to the effect that if further supplies did not come to hand there was a danger of the gas supply failing altogether. Consumers were advised to make alternative arrangements for cooking and lighting.

DEATH.

Sheehan—On February 5th, 1944, at her residence, 22 Sexton Street, Limerick, Catherine (Kate) Sheehan. Deeply regretted by her son and family, relatives and a large circle of friends. Funeral from St. Michael's Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery to-morrow (Tuesday), at 3 p.m. R.I.P. (c)