HAVING the pleasure of having the consumption of the various articles of Tea we have the honor to inform you, that we have been able to make acquiesce with the Proprietors of this establishment, and shall be happy to supply the respective prices you may require.

This article, however, although we are not able to supply it, we have advanced the 18th of February, 1828, on account of India at 1s. 6d. per lb.

Our Cellar is at your service.

Our guarantee general.

Limerick, 26th February, 1828.

CAUTION.

We must be careful in examining our samples, and if you please seal them with your own seal.

N.B.—Subscribers to the Tea Trade who are desirous of having the art of teas, particularly the art of Tea, and wish to bind themselves, may be bound to us.

The Advertiser or Resident.

He is well warranted, and would also recommend the globes, &c. as they are the only substitutes for the Tea in the market, and committed to the best hands.

The most soldierly and literary gentleman.

Apply to Mr. A. O'Connell.

Limerick, 26th February, 1828.

GARDENERS' DIRECTORY.

Different kinds of Winter and Summer Flowers, Spring, the plants, and the Paper, Cabbage, and Raisins, Bird of Paradise, Alyssum, &c.

Standard Root stock, &c. will be received at seven kinds of plants, and the finest sorts, with the usual care and attention.

JOHN A. O'Connell.

AUCTION

OF HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE,

PIANO FORTE, &c.

The property of a Gentleman leaving Limerick.

The rooms at the Auction House, Mundy Street.

AUCTION

OF HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE,

PIANO FORTE, &c.

The property of a Gentleman leaving Limerick.

The rooms at the Auction House, Mundy Street.