

THE MILITARY.
 the Depot 85th Light In-ced party on the march for the purpose of ob-vision in the rere of them, town some country fellows road side, one of whom ant, which struck him on ostrate. The others imme-victim, and deprived him s fusil, with which they abight in five minutes! The himself from the stunning th difficulty walked into rm disfigured with blood, dressed, which had it been medical gentlemen declared rived. The soldier who was a few perches in ad-so sudden, that he could s unexpected prize must be e marauders, and will, no a to more desperate feats of ety House was filled last ble and anxious auditory, ing address from Sir Aubrey whose luminous view of the vantages, resulting from a sciences, elicited the frembers and visitors. There in the lecture room, and the Hon. John P. Vereker, O'Brien, and family; Sir

 ily; Mr. and Lady Anna
 a. Sir Richard Bourke, Col.
 r Richard Franklin, Rev.
 Jacob, &c. The building with gas. Much as was al address of the worthy and rey De Vere did not disap-We could not just now enter n which occupied the respect-reading, and was listened to tentation by an auditory com-learning, intelligence and county, with much of the th, who came no doubt ligious and wisdom. Sir felicitous manner to the reland, and to those illusorn her annals, whether ate, the church, at the bar, ng from Limerick the late Irish House of Commons, Chief Baron Guillamore, ran, the Historian, &c. and he present day, senators and not particularise, but to posterity would do justice, one to their last accounted, the Hon. J. P. Vereker a cordial vote of thanks to which was seconded by Sir ssed by acclamation. The e able, erudite and pious, be published.

Cooper, 46th Native Infantry.
 James Fraser, of the Madras Civil Service, son of Affleck Fraser, of Culduthell, Inverness, to Emma Jane, daughter of the late Major Owen Wynne Gray, 62d Foot.
 Edward Jennings, Esq. of Cross, county Mayo, to Ann, daughter of Robert Dillon, Esq. of Mount-Mary, county Roscommon.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, in George's-street, very generally regretted, Robert O'Shaughnessy, Esq, an extensive wholesale and retail Jeweller and Watchmaker. His upright conduct, and honourable principle in all his transactions in life, endeared him to society.
 Wednesday last, at Beechpark, Ennis, Mrs. Keane, relict of the late Robert Keane, Esq. She exemplified in her life the mildness and gentleness of the christian. Her dependence on her Redeemer's love, enabled her to bear all her sufferings with uncomplaining meekness.
 Anna Maria, second daughter of Henry Langley, of Archers town, county Tipperary, Esq.
 At Larne, the Rev. William Moore.
 In the 93d year of his age, Adam Boyd, Esq. of Kingstown, many years a highly respectable citizen of Dublin.
 At Larkfield, of scarletina, Matilda Anna, daughter of Samuel Hartney, Esq.
 Jemima, eldest daughter of Walter Goodman, Esq. of Blessington-street.
 Mrs. Ferguson, wife of the Rev. William Ferguson.
 Nancy, wife of Henry French, Esq. French-park, Randalstown.
 At Armagh, Mr. David Hamilton, aged 84 years—57 of which he had been a Vicar Choral in the Cathedral.
 Alexander, son of Mr. George Pollock, of Belfast.
 In Upper Seymour-street, Portman-square, Lady Hulse, relict of the late Field Marshal Sir Samuel Hulse.
 At Maldon, Essex, on the 14th ult, at the advanced age of 88, Mrs. Stotherd, relict of Col. Stotherd.
 At Strathblane Manse, the Rev. Hamilton Buchanan,
 At the Manse of Tinwald, the Rev. George Greig.
 At Perth, the Rev. Forrest Frew, of First Relief Congregation.
 In Glasgow, the Rev. John Fisher, Chaplain of the South Prison.
 At Paisley, Mr. Samuel Shannon.
 At Croydon, after a short illness, Colonel Stretton, C. B. of her Majesty's service.
 At Poona, Barrack-serjeant Samuel Jeffrey.
 At Aden, Edwin Desbrisay, son of W. S. Hall, Esq. Paymaster of her Majesty's 17th Regt.
 At Colaba, Constance, daughter of the late Dr. Barrington, Lunatic Asylum.
 At Hydrabad, Emily Louisa, wife of Captain Stanley, of the Nizam's army, daughter of Captain Nicholson, 84th Regt.
 At Colaba, Lieut. and Quartermaster G. H. Croad, 4th Light Dragoons.
 At Mussooree, Lieut. MacMillan, 22d Native Infantry.
 At Cooly Bazaar, Conductor John Graves, of the Ordnance Department.
 At Hazradore, Jessore, Maurice Tweedie, Esq. son of T.
 Tweedie, Esq. of the Medical Board.
 At Calcutta, James Patton, Esq. only son of the late Major-General Robert Patton.
 At Colvin's Ghaut, Captain Thomas Talbot Harrington, Master Attendant.
 At Sultanpore, Benares, Captain Robert Trotter Knox, 6th Light Cavalry.
 At Berhampore, the wife of Mr. Samuel Whitt, 55th Regt.
 At Calcutta, Edward Whyte, Esq. of the firm of Mackenzie, Llyall, and Co.
 At Ghazepore, Brevet-Major John Hicks, of the 17th Native Infantry.
 At Lucknow, Lieut Robert Reynolds, 57th Native Infantry.
 At Nellore, Matilda Julia, daughter of Capt. T. Ryves, 1st M.
 European Regiment, Assistant Surveyor-General.
 At Teheran, on the 28th October, Charles Scott, Esq. youngest son of the late Sir Walter Scott, Bart. of Abbotsford. He was interred in the Armenian Church, and the funeral was attended by the members of the British and Russian Missions, and the native Christian population.
 Tuesday, in Mary-street, Mr. John Kirby, grocer and spirit-merchant.
 Edward Briscoe, Esq. of Grangemore, county Westmeath.
 At Rome, Ann, relict of Mr. Owen M'Auley, of Dublin.
 At Bachelor's-walk, Robert Mosley, gem and seal engraver.
 At Glenfield Cottage, near Carrickfergus, John Wright, Esq, sub-inspector of the county Antrim.
 Edward Peel, Esq. Ordnance Survey Office, Phoenix Park.
 At Sea Bank, near Greenock, Mrs. Johnston, relict of Adam Johnston, Esq. late Collector of Customs at that Port.
 Mary, wife of Sir John Dean Paul, Bart.
 Thomas George Mitchell, Esq, purser of her Majesty's ship Seafower.

Marriage, to the freedom of NESDAY, 16th instant.

By Ord
 JOH

Feb. 9.

SPRINGM
 THE Seat of the late W heretofore advertised, is posals in writing will be receiv
 POWER, Esq. Odellville, Bal ODELL, Esq. Shannonview, A has been promised, or will HALL, of Ballingarry, will se Premises.

Mont de Piete
 HERE will be an AU
 Establishment of all Go Months, on TUESDAY, 1st day persons interested are require EDW

February 9,

PASTLETOW
 AND
Posting Esta
 THOMAS HYLAND begs and Gentry travelling th in consequence of the Po RUSHALL being discontinued, open the above Hotel which manner to give general satisf strict attention and moderate patronage.

T. HYLAND pledges hims his Horses and Carriages, an of his drivers.

All orders addressed to Hy town, Mountrath, will be pun

In Chan
 In the matter of Laurenc
 Marshall, Michael Marshall
 Mary Marshall, and Ann Marshall,
 Minors.

the 15th day of March next o'clock afternoon, at my Cham Dublin, set up and let to the hi during the minority of the Marshall, from the 25th day and those the Mansion H TIMOLINE, known by the n containing about 42 Acres, to Garden and all out-Houses, Houses appertaining thereto, sion of William Bennett, Esq of Doon, barony of Co Limerick. Dated this 26th d

GEO. WESTROPP and OCT
 tors, 15, Leeson-street, Dubli