

...to a reduction of tes in the Free State. Our Postal ment is still probably a losing con-it, on the other hand, a reduction letter and newspaper rates would ly mean increased revenue to the lice, and a welcome relief to the ial—in fact, to all sections of the ity.

NON POWER SCHEME.

ower station erected at Ardnacrusha ntemporary means of supplying current works and in the district is now in order, and last evening electricity nmitted at the place for the first t is understood that current from tion will be available for public and lighting if required. Yesterday an al complement of men were taken Ardnacrusha, bringing the total now employed in that area up to 1,200 and 1,500. During the week urther batch of German mechanics in Limerick; and with a view to g immediate aid to workmen re-injuries at the works, members of s Ambulance Corps have taken up e at Ardnacrusha.

MINENT CORK JOURNALIST DEAD.

death took place last evening of Mr Bradley, a member of the "Cork er" staff for over forty years. He f reporter, and later sub-editor of the Examiner." He was taken ill at the terday, and collapsed on reaching s, and died shortly afterwards. te Mr Bradley was a very able all-ournalist. He was widely known out Munster, and was held in the regard and esteem by his colleagues ress and the general public.

OOD PRICES TRIBUNAL.

ames of the members of the Food ribunal are officially announced as —Senator S. L. Brown, K.C., n; Prof. Busted, University College, A. Butler, Maire Ni Chinneide, ajor Bryan Cooper, T.D.; Senator n, Joseph Johnston, J. F. Maguire, aw, T.D.

for the City of Limerick has been arranged by the Bishop, Right Rev. Dr. White and the parochial clergy, for June 5 to 13, inclusive. The missioner will be the Rev.
 Frank Stone, Vicar of St. Peter's, Newton-le Willows, in the diocese of Liverpool, who served as a chaplain during the war and was awarded a Military Cross. Mr Stone is an experienced missioner in many fields, and conducted a mission last year in Cork diocese, securing the affectionate attention of the clergy and people to whom he ministered.

The Bishop and city clergy are inviting all members of the Church of Ireland, men and women, who are interested in this matter, to meet them in the Diocesan Hall on Tuesday, 23rd February, at 8 p.m., to pray for a blessing on this spiritual enterprise, and to consult as to the best means of enlisting the co-operation of all earnest Church workers in connection with the mission. The Archbishop of Dublin has promised to preach at St. Mary's Cathedral at a service of preparation on Monday, 31st May.

DEATH OF MRS MARY NAGLE.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs Nagle, 13 Dominick street, Limerick, which occurred on the 14th inst. Deceased was second youngest daughter of the late Mr John Roche, Kilmallock, and granddaughter of the late Mr. Charles Hogan, Co. Tipperary. The funeral took place yesterday to Mount St. Lawrence, and was large and representative. Deep sympathy is tendered to Mr Nagle and relatives in their bereavement.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE DELEGATE BOARD.

Condolence.

At a special meeting of the above, Mr J.
 Cusack presiding, the following resolution was passed in silence, all delegates standing —Resolved—"That we tender our deepest sympathy to the families, relatives, and friends of Mr J. A. Hennessy and Mr J.
 McCormac, both ex-members of the Mechanics' Institute." A touching tribute was paid to the memory of these two gentlemen for the services they rendered to the Mechanics' Institute, and also when they were active members of the Trades Council and the members humbly pray that God will be merciful to them, and console those who are left to mourn their loss.—Jno.
 Reddan, Sec.

gold wristlet watch.

CENTRAL CRIMINAL SENTENCE

Sentences passed at the Court, Dublin, on Saturday following:—

Michael Flynn—8 months division, dated from July 2 ing in the formation of an force in Clare.

John McCarthy (Co. Lin) sentence on similar charge.

Michael Hayes—12 mont from Nov. 17 last, for the packets.

ST. MARY'S CATH

Ash-Wednesday—11 a.m. tial Service, and Celebrati Communion.

RUGBY FOOTB

Dublin University v. C

This, the match of the sea will take place in the Ma Thursday, and is, needless forward to with keen intere A fine game is assured. J sharp.

Munster Junior

At the Markets Field on and Star were engaged in th of the Munster Junior Cup. was unfavourable and the g holding in parts, but a witnessed by the spectators: superior side and won (12 points) to two tries (6 p

ARE YOU EMIGR
 If so, why not go
AUSTRALIA
 The LAND of SUNSHINE and You can travel by
P. & O. ONE CLASS from LONDON to AUSTRALIA vi cheaply as £37, and ther troubles—you simply need Apply for Sailings and all par P. & O. One Class Service, 32, Lime or to the nearest P. & O. AGE and address will, if desired, be se to above.