At Baiden, the Lady of Henry Leslie Pringle, Esq., of a daughter.
At Belmont, the Right Hon. Lady Harris, of a son.
In Belgrave-square, London, the Lady of Richard Sanderson, Esq.
M.P. of a son.
In London, the Lady of C. Phillips, Esq., barrister-at-law, of a son.
In Dover-street, London, the Lady Jeremy Elt, of a son.
At Hinton House, near Crewkerne, the Countess Poulett, of a son.
At Westbrooke, Herts, Lady Georgiana Ryder, of a son.
At Windsor, the Lady of John Bowling, Esq., Scots Fusilier Guards, of a daughter.
At Chatham, the Lady of G. M. Harkness, Esq., 61st Regt. of a son.
At Government House, St. Vincent's, the Lady of his Excellency Captain Geo. Tyler, R.N., of a son.

DEATHS.

At Retreat Cottage, Cove, aged 15 years, Maria, second daughter of the late Thomas O'Grady, Esq., Surveyor General of Excise in this district, a lovely and interesting creature.

At Lollingborough, on the 13th instant, Emma, eldest daughter of John Lloyd, Esq., whose remarkable accomplishments have rendered her the object of universal regret.

Miss Jane Weldon, daughter of J. Weldon, of Baggot-street, Esq.
In Windmill-street, Mrs. Cusack, wife of Mr. J. Cusack, gardener.
In Leeson-street, Dublin, Richard Nesbitt, son of James Doombair, Esq., Inspector-General of the Coast Guard.
At Gorebridge, Mary Ann, wife of Ephraim Burroughs, Esq.
John Jellicoe, Esq., of Flamborough, Clogheen.
At Cootehall, of a severe paralytic attack, the Rev. Thomas Conyngham, in his 64th year, for many years Parish Priest of Cootehall.
At Inagh, county Clare, Mr. John Cotter.
At Drogheda, in a few miles of Ennis, John Meere, at the advanced age of 110.
In her 20th year, Maria, eldest daughter of the Rev. John Jones, Vicar of Dunleary.
In her 60th year, Mrs. Mary Joseph Flynn, Foundress of the Presentation Convent, Doneraile.
At the Palace of Ferns, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with unruffled patience and resignation, wife to the Lord Bishop of Ferns.
At Clongriffin, Newport White, Esq.
At Kinsealy, Anne, widow of the late Hugh O'Brien, Dublin, Esq.
In Camelon, Miss Mary Ward.
At New Ross, Mary Anne, wife of the Rev. James Morgan, Rector of that town.
In Bandon, Mary, daughter of William Foster, Esq., Strandbanna, Mrs. Harpur.
In Grove Lane, Camberwell, Colonel Wm. C. Oliver, of his 61st year.
At Constantia, East India Company's Madras Establishment, in his 38th year.
At East Sheen, in her 60th year, Elizabeth, relict of the late John Marriott, Esq., magistrate of the Thames Police.
At Grosvenor-square, the Mrs. Lucy Manners, of Bloxholm.
At Woolwich, of apoplexy, Miss Elizabeth Unett, sister of the late Major Unett.
At Gravesend, Sarah Russell, widow of the late Robert Russell, Esq., Zillah, surgeon in Canara, East Indies.

On his passage to the Cape of Good Hope, on the fifth day after leaving Portsmouth, George, the youngest son of Major Longmore.
At Masulipatam, in the East Indies, Mary Jane Boyes, youngest daughter of the late Captain James Boyes, of the 76th Regiment.

WANTED

A STEWARD and GARDENER of first-rate abilities and character, that will bear the strictest investigation. None but a Protestant need apply. Application to be made to Mr. LEDGER, Bookseller, George's-street; or at the CHRONICLE OFFICE (if by letter post-paid.)

February 18.