In Upper Glentworth-street, at an advanced age, Miss Catherine Cox.

On Wilson's Quay, at an advanced age, Mr. Patrick Ross, spirit-merchant.

In Bedford-Road, Mr. Henry Roche.

In Sexton-street, Mrs. Somerville, widow of the late Mr. William Somerville, of Tarbert.

At Seafield, county Dublin, Sera, fourth daughter of the late Dorell O'Reilly, of the Heath, Queen's County, Esq.

At Great George's-street North, of the late Mr. Robert Alexander, son of John George Smyly, Esq.

John Barry, Esq. corn and flour-merchant, Abbey-street, Dublin.

In Dunbar-street, Cork, Eliza, child of R. D. Chillingworth, Esq.

At the Glee-house, Timoleague, Nicholas Lambert Coghlan, aged 22 years, second son of the Rev. Dr. Coghlan.

In Collon, Samuel M'Gurl, Esq. late Lieutenant in Royal Vn. Esq. Thos. Fitzgerald, many years Deputy Governor of Wexford gaol. Mr. John T. Searle, of Athlone.

At Ballyna, Mayo, Mr. James Devitt.

At Dungarvan, Mary, wife of Mr. James Magrath, apothecary.

In London, Frederick Walsh Drennan, Esq. the author of several beautiful poetical effusions.

At Montague-square, London, Judith, relish of the late Rear Admiral Manby, of Northwood, Norfolk, in his 47th year.

In Southumberland, and Andrew Martin, Esq. aged 84 years.

At his seat, Carr-hall, near Calne, Lancashire, in his 80th year, Thomas Clayton, Esq. one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and Deputy Lieutenant of his native county, and formerly Lieut.-Colonel in the Royal Lancashire Fencibles. But a few days before his death, his eldest child was married to Edward Every, Esq. late Captain in the 98th Regiment, and second son of Sir Henry Every, Bart. of Eggington, in the county of Derby.

Thomas Pendavilles Stackhouse Acton, Esq. of Acton Scott, a Magistrate, and Deputy Lieutenant of Salop.

At Bossall, Yorkshire, the Right Hon. Lady Macdonald, relish of Lieut.-General Godfrey Bosville, Lord Macdonald of Thorpe and Guntwhalt, same county, and of Armadale Castle, Isle of Skye, N.B. In his 83rd year, Henry Lee Warner, Esq. of Walsingham, Norfolk.

At Haverholm Priory, the Countess of Winchelsea.

In Cheltenham, Jane, relish of the late Henry William Knox, Esq. of Netley Park, county Mayo.

In George's River, Van Diemen's Land, wrecked and drowned, Captain Robert Morgan, of the Bengal Native Infantry.

In the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

A FULL Meeting of our Board will be held on the 1st inst., at No. 65, examining the Account of the General Assizes next month.

It is earnestly requested that subscribers for the present year may send their subscriptions to Esq. Mallow-street, in the report for the year, which is now in progress.

JAMES D. MERCER,
WM. P. HAYNE.
Limerick, February 14th.

BEGS leave to inform Mr. Connell and his family, that owing to the hours being those hours to the Practice in Classics and English is a subject not for Mr. Connell, it is with the decision of the result long known to him, that the accent and correct pronunciation committed to his care.

To the Parents of Pupils, end of the season (or part of having their children and for the References of the first three weeks:

School Hours: no school, 11 a.m. Three O'clock, and end of the pupils.

Any Commands (including Mr. HANLY, Cromer, Returned from the City, will meet with the convenience of his inmates in Roche's house, neath in the office.)

MARKHOLTZ. The House is of well-made, comfortable in its four well-aired and lighted.

House Close and Kitchen.

Application to Mr. CLEGG, Cloth Hall, 19, George St.

FOR Twenty-one years, and are on the same application, BALLYHENNA, in the County of Clare, are of the plain fair, and are John D. Ennis, two miles from the

Those Lands consist of widenage, and are of the principal fair of Ennis, two miles from Paircagh and Ballyhanna.