DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at his residence, Sarah-ville, county Tipperary, George Hewson, Esq. at an advanced age, whose demise must be deeply regretted by all within the sphere of his acquaintance, who have virtue to admire, or taste to appreciate the real worth of a kind friend, an affectionate relative, and fond husband —all which endearing qualities shone forth in him with considerable lustre, throughout this transitory pilgrimage of life. But, in greater respect to his memory be it said, that he supported the character of a "True Christian," and attained that good name which abideth unto time immemorial: inasmuch as it is written, that "The Righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance."

At York Terrace, Cork, Ellen, relict of the late John M. Smyth, Esq. of that city.

At Drumleek House, county Louth, John Pepper Lee, Esq. late Captain in the Louth Militia.

At Nile-street, Cork, Abigail, widow of the late James Splaine, Esq. of Gurrane, in that county.

Tuesday, after a very short illness, at his house in Roche's-street, Jane, wife of Mr. Jonathan Mason, Optician.

On the 17th inst. at Mantle-hill, in this county, Eliza, the dearly beloved daughter of John Hunt, Esq.

At Nelson-place, Cork, Mr. Maurice Cosgreave.

In Newry, Jane, wife of Mr. George Elliott, Printer.

At Baltinglass, William Henry King, Esq. late Inspector-Gen. of Fisheries.

In Prussia-street, from the effects of severe wounds received at the battle of Waterloo, Lieut. Thomas Boyd, formerly Ad;utant of the Inniskilling Dragoons.

At Temora, the daughter of the Count and Countess Magawly.

Edward Osborne MacCord, Esq. son of the late Thomas Mac-Cord, Esq. Curraghmore, County Wexford.

Mr. Thomas Lalor, of Clonmel.

At the house of her brother-in-law, F. Carleton, Esq. Monks-town, county Dublin, Althea, daughter of Ford North, Esq. of Ambleside.

At Edinburgh, in the 89th year of his age, the Right Hon. Wm.
Adam, Lord Chief Commissioner of the Jury Court of Scotland.

In Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury, Joseph Pinckard, Esq. aged 78.

At his house in Grafton-street, the Right Hon. Lord St. Helena, in his 86th year.

At Brighton, Charles Troubridge, eldest son of Lieut.-General
Sir Charles Egerton.

In Edinburgh, George Hill, Esq. late of Dublin, merchant.
Ensign Mein, 74th Regt.

Mary, wife of John L. Hammond, Esq. of Firley Hall, Bedale, Yorkshire.

In Lower Sloane-street, David Black, Esq.

In Paris, Charles Smith, Esq. Lieut. (half-pay) 32d Regiment.

At her brother's house, Kennington, Mrs. Sophia Cole, aged 76.

On the 24th December, at Spanish Town, Jamaica, after a severe fever of only five days, Eliza, the beloved wife of James Halfhide, Esq. Paymaster 37th Regt. a lady whose benevolent disposition will be long cherished in the memory of those who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, many of whom when on the bed of sickness, in a foreign climate far from their native home, have been, under Providence, through her kind and unremitting care and attention, saved from the jaws of death.
