DEATHS.

In the prime of life, at the Rectory of Templemore, the Rev. Henry Armstrong, Curate of Thurlins.

At the Augustine Friary, in George-street, after a very few days' illness, the Rev. John A. Cronin, a native of this City, and a Clergyman of unpretending manners and sincere piety, removed an object of very general esteem and regard.

Mr. James McCarthy, of this Port, Revenue Officer.

At her house in Molesworth-street, Dublin, Mary, only daughter of the late Richard Laroc of Shanakill, county Tipperary, Esq.

At his house in William-street, Dublin, after an illness of twelve days, Charles Bewley, Esq., one of the Society of Friends, and of the firm of Samuel Bewley and Sons. He married in 1816, Eliza, daughter of the Hon. C'Oc'harae Johnstone, by whom he has left several children, the eldest son is in his 16th year.

In Baggot-street, Dublin, at the residence of his brother, Dr. George Barker, of Athy. He was surgeon to the 11th Regiment, and for 29 years connected with the Army.

At Mallow, Constance Maria Hume, relict of the late Clement Hume, Esq.

At Tivoli Terrace, near Cork, Mrs. Cashel, wife of George Cashel, Esq., Kerry, and sister of Professor Wilson, of Edinburgh.

In her 37th year, a few hours after giving birth to twins, Jane, wife of John Fowler, Esq., of Middle Garden-street, Dublin, Deputy-Grand-Secretary to the Masonic Grand Lodge of Ireland.

The highly-talented and justly-esteem'd popular actress, of the Dublin Theatre, Miss Barry. She possessed talents of no ordinary rank, and in no place were those talents more warmly appreciated than in Dublin, where it will be no easy task to fill up the blank which her death has occasioned.

At his house in Merriam-row, Dublin, Thomas Nugent, Esq.

At Donnybrook, Mr. Richard Greene, aged 96.

At Cullinlidge-lodge, Westmeath, Lieutenant Dunwoody, late 7th Dragoon Guards.

Aged 8 years, Henry Delap, Esq., who had been one of the most respected and respectable members of Derry. He was Adjutant of the first Derry corps of Volunteers in 1777, and afterwards filled the same rank in the Volunteers of 1800.

At Ballymena, co. Antrim, aged 72, Samuel Brien, Esq., surgeon, Harriet, daughter of Mr. Robert Creenhan, of Maryborough.

In Tralee, Mr. W. O'Sullivan, flour factor and livery stable keeper.

In Tralee, Mrs. Turner, wife of Mr. John Turner.

At Moorstown, Tipperary, Mr. John Mackin.

At Drogheda, Mr. Henry Smith, formerly of Waterford, corn merchant.

In Edward-street, Portman-square, London, in her 97th year, Catherine, relict of the Hon. General Simon Fraser, eldest son of the last Lord Lovat.

At Flaxley Abbey, Mary Albinia, the wife of Sir Thomas Crawley Boveye, Bart.

At Winchester, in her 86th year, Lady Rivers, widow of the late Sir Peter Rivers.

At Alkham, in his 79th year, the Rev. A. J. Smith, Rector of Carlton, in Lincolnshire, and for 55 years Curate and Vicar of Alkham and Capel Le Ferne.

At Lieut.-Colonel Fanshawe's, in the Regent's Park, the Dowager Lady Dalrymple, aged 82.

At Montpellier, France, David James Skene, Esq., Lieutenant on half-pay of the 4th Royal Irish Dragoon Guards.

At the Jesuit College of Navarre, Piedmont, George, son of the late James Ryan, Esq., M.D. of Lislowe.

THE COMMERCIAL STEAM COACHES.

WILL start from the First Sunday in June, at 6 A.M. at the Merrion Row, and will call at Dunkehill, where a stop will be made for refreshments. This service will be continued from June to December.

De Clare's Castle, Hackney, is free for all passengers and horses.

De Clare's Castle, Hackney, is free for all passengers and horses.

To be seen up at the Mill at Hackney.

DEACON'S STEAM COACHES.

Good Grass and Water, and for the shortest time as I am accountable.

February 23rd, 1848.