WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET.

ay, February 22nd—Entries numbered ing over average seasonable supply, in-drafts of really choice heifers; buyers attendance; those on the look out for heifers were not disappointed, as there any to choose from. The top heifers competed, and promising heifers true dairy type met a ready quick and changed hands at best current

That it pays to care and feed was attested by the high prices willingly paid brought out heifers. There is active demand for useful heifers and young cows, rough those lacking "shape" a slow trade and prices; prices give an indication of the demanded. Business was firm on the

the higher values of last week's although in some cases exchange was easily effected. An exceptionally fine ing heifer, the property of Mr. Thomas

Knockananty, Ballysimon, Co. Limerick, and realised the sum of £37. Vendors of the same class for next week. The demand of young cows, 5 or 6 years old, in was more could have been sold, as buyers did not fill up their requirements. In this section Mr. R. Fitzgerald, of Adare, obtained for a particularly fine dairy cow £40 10s. Good all round was the day for choice and promising heifers. Choice heifers, £33 10s. to £27 10s. to £32 10s.; ordinary,

£26 15s.; dairy cows, best, £28 to £40 ordinary, £18 10s. to £27 10s.—Wm. B.

of Adare, Auctioneers.

IN MEMORIAM.

FERGUSON (Fourth Anniversary)—In cherished and loving memory of our darling son, Liam Ferguson, who died at his home, 5, Prospect Villas, on 24th February, 1939, aged 18½ years. O, Little Flower of Jesus, pray for him. Mass offered to-day.

A little while and we shall see the shadows Fade in the sunlight of eternal love.

A little while and we shall be for ever
With our darling Liam in heaven above.

—Thy will be done. Never forgotten by dad, mother, sisters and brothers. (26p)

FRAWLEY (nee Fagan) (6th Anniversary)—In loving memory of dear Aggie, who died on the 25th February, 1938. On her soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy.

Memories of you and us together,
Will linger in our hearts for ever.

—Inserted by her loving sister-in-law, Lena.

HICKEY (Ninth Anniversary)—In sad and ever loving memory of my dear husband, William Hickey (ex-rate collector), who departed this life on February 25th, 1935, at his residence, Boher, Caherconlish, Co. Limerick. On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. R.I.P. Masses offered. All I ask of those who knew him is just a prayer to-day.

In Belaminure softly sleeping,
Where the trees and branches wave,
Lies my dear beloved husband,
I loved so dearly in a lone and silent grave.

—Inserted by his fond and loving wife; Sean,
Inspector, Department of Agriculture; Liam, Irish teacher, and Tomas, sons; Mrs. William Frawley, C.M.B., nurse; Mrs. M. Hogan and Susan, daughters. (26p)

O'CONNOR (Ninth Anniversary)—In loving memory of John O'Connor, 28, Little Gerald Griffin St., Limerick, who died on the 28th February, 1935. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on his soul. Our Lady of Lourdes, intercede for him. Masses offered.—Inserted by his loving mother and brothers. (26p)

With broken hearts we said good-bye,
As the shadow of death drew near,
And took from our home but not from our hearts,
The one we loved so dear.

—Never forgotten by his wife and family. (26p)

O'DWYER (First Anniversary)—In sad remembrance of Michael O'Dwyer, who died 1st March, 1943. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on his

How Fynnon Salt eased his leg pains

"Nine weeks ago," writes an old-age pensioner, "I had a severe attack of sciatica — my first. The first four weeks I could not put my foot to the ground. Reading in my daily paper of the good results someone had derived from Fynnon Salt, I decided to try a tin. After 8 days I could put my foot to the ground and with the aid of two sticks walk about a little. On the 14th day of treatment I needed only one stick, and have now discarded that, and moreover I am back at work (casual). I am a pensioner so you will know I am not a boy!"

Fynnon Salt helps to purify the blood-stream, flushes liver and kidneys and so eliminates the toxins which contribute to rheumatism and sciatica. Large tin 1/6. Get a tin today!
