Four years have passed since that sad day. When our great sorrow fell; The shock that we received that day We still remember well. Your end came sudden, Gerard dear, You made us weep and cry, But O, the saddest part of all, You never said good-bye. Could we have been there to raise his head, Or hear his last farewell; The blow would not have been so hard To ones who loved him so well.

PRICE OF GRAZING.

The letting of 5 statute acres of grass land on the outskirts of Killaloe on Tuesday last (writes our Killaloe correspondent) brought forth spirited bidding. The auctioneer, Mr. de Courcy, finally knocked it down to Mr. P. Quigley, Grange, Ballina, for £42, which was the highest figure yet realised in this area for grass land.
