

assist the choir of St. Michael's church on Sunday next, being the annual sermon in behalf of the Protestant Orphan society, which will be preached by the Rev. Archdeacon Gould.

The Rev. Wm. N. Willis most thankfully acknowledges for Protestant Orphans, 51/2s. from Rathkeale Association, per Rev. Andrew Nash, treasurer.

The Rev. Benjamin Jacob, in a lucid sermon on Monday last, in Trinity Church, congratulated his congregation on the triumphant downfall that the anti-biblical debate had in the House of Commons on Thursday, when the opening of the Crystal Palace, British Museum, and other public offices to be open on the Lord's day, was defeated by 248 to 49. However, he trusted that no relaxation should exist, as the enemy to religion would again bring forward the subject, and hoped that a petition, now lying at the Young Men's Society rooms, George-street, would be signed by numerous and respectably signed. It is to be forwarded this week.

The Rev. James Hastings Allen will preach in St. Michael's Church, on Friday next.

The Lord Bishop of Derry has appointed the Rev. Robert Gage to the Rectory of Desertoghill, vacant by the death of the Rev. Redmond R. M'Cauley; and the Rev. Wm. Dysart, curate of Tamlaghtfinlagan, to the rectory of Tamlaghtard, vacant by the promotion of Mr. Gage.

George Dartnell, Esq. thankfully acknowledges having received for Protestant Orphan Hall, from Messrs. Arnott and Co. £5; and a Friend £1.

Mr. Henry Owens, of this city, has contributed a valuable carved Irish oak chair, upholstered in velvet, to the Clare Protestant Orphan Bazaar, Mr. Revingson, George's street gave a large collection of articles in the fancy department.

The Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Cork, is to lecture for the Young Men's Christian Association to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock, in their room, Thomas-st.—The subject, "Nature and Man." From the well known able character of the reverend lecturer an instructive discourse may be expected.

Rev. Father Petcherine is to preach at Ennis on Monday, in aid of the fund for liquidation of the debt, on the completion of the new Roman Catholic Church at that town.

Mr. Edward Fitzgerald, Bart. of Carrigoran house, has subscribed 100l. towards the completion of Ennis Chapel.

The Bazaar in aid of the Convent of Mercy, Ennis, yesterday and this day was well attended, and the band of the Longford Rifles enlivened the company by their performance.

The Young Men's society gratefully acknowledge the receipt of 2l. from Earl Dunraven, his lordship's annual subscription to the society; and 2l. from James Wright, Esq. Mayor, in aid of the Gerald Griffin Library, and the evening school of the society, per Mr. O'Donnell, jun.

The Reporter of a Galway paper came to Gort on Wednesday last, to attend the Roman Catholic chapel service, and report the sermons of the Redemptorist Fathers, but he was not permitted to enter the chapel, and was pushed down the steps by the parish clerk.

At Cheltenham, Capt. Portal, ADJ. 4th Light Dragoon, to Eliza, daughter of the late General Taylor, Lieutenant-General of Sandhurst

Henry, eldest son of Admiral Sir Robert Howe Bart to Georgiana Ellen, youngest daughter of Viscount Esq. of Little Pondon hall, Lincolnshire.

In Jersey, John Belknap Thompson, Esq. of Liverpool, to Rosa Emily, daughter of Rear Admiral Morrison, Clarendon terrace, Jersey.

At Jamaica, Alexander Dunlop, Esq. 31 West India Regt. to Margaretta Omerod, daughter of Capt. Harrison, Barrack Master, Newcastle

At Bombay, Mark Style, Esq. Assistant-Surgeon, to Maria Jervis White Jervis, daughter of Sir Henry Meredith J. V. Jervis, Bart. of Bally Ellis, county Wexford.

At Calcutta, Capt. A. Tisill, 25th Regt. to Anna Clara, eldest daughter of the late Major Henry Walter Bellew, Bengal army.

In Bangalore, W. Stewart Richardson, Esq. Lieutenant 43d Light Infantry, third son of the late Major Charles Richardson, Annagh house, county Tyrone, to Matilda Caroline, third daughter of Lt-Col. J. Forbes Musgrove, 23d Regiment MNI.

At Byoulla church, Bombay, William Wilson, Esq. Lieut. and Adjutant 1st Grenadier Regt. NI, to Euphemia, youngest daughter of the late Lieut-General John M'Nair, CB, late of HM 90th Regt.

DEATHS.

On Sunday, at Askeaton, Jane, sister of William Brown, Esq. of Castle Hewson—a lady esteemed and respected by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

On Saturday evening, at Castle-Connell, which she had been ordered for change of air, Mrs. Margaret Molony, a lady who endeared herself to her relatives and friends by her amiable and unobtrusive manners.

Captain Daniel O'Mara, Barrack-master, Newry—an officer universally esteemed, and generally regretted by his numerous circle of relatives and friends.

At Dunmanway, John Hall, Esq. Poor Law Inspector of Cork district.

In Broad-street, Mrs. Ronan.

At Ballykisteon, Tipperary, on the 23d, aged one year and 7 months, Oswald, only child of Charles G. Greer, Esq.

In Ennis, the infant daughter of Mr. Francis Taylor, Mess-master Royal Longford Rifles.

In Cork, Eliza, relict of the Rev. Morgan Jellott.

In Waterford, John E. J. Blake, son of Mr. Thomas H. Blake.

At the South Mall, Cork, Mary Ellen, daughter of Robert Baily, Esq.

At Youghal, the Rev. Maurice Sheehan, PP: Patrick, son of Mr. Nicholas White, of Wexford.

At the Presentation Convent, Carlow, Mrs. Cochran, known in religion as Sister Mary Peter.

In Tuam, Francis Waldron, Esq.

At Tivoli terrace, Kingstown, Maria, relict of the late Hon. and Ven. George Gore, Dean of Kildalla, aged 81.

At Upper Gardiner-street, Mary Meredith, relict of Hugh M'Clintock, Esq. MD, 1st Royal Dragoons.

In Pembroke-street, Richard Wright, Esq. aged 81.

In Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Alexander Warthington, Esq.

At Tullamore, George M'Mullen, Esq. aged 78.

At Kimmage, Mrs. Judith Connor, aged 72.

At Portarlington, Mr. Edward Miller.

At Portaferry, James B. Warnock, Esq.

At Grimshy, England, Mr. John Joseph Walker, son of Alderman Walker, JP, of Sligo.

Lieut-General Sir J. Hunter Littler, GCB, F.R.S.

In South Audley-street, Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the late General Isaac Gascovne.

At Merwick hall, Northumberland, General Sir John Grey, KCB.

At Leamington, Louisa Manners Sutton, eldest surviving daughter of the late Rt. Rev. C. M. Sutton, Archbishop of Canterbury, aged 69.

On the 17th inst. at the house of his daughter, Madame de Montano Castris, Taru, South of France, the Rev. M. de France, fourth son of the late Henry Bayan, Esq. of Paris. His affable and agreeable manners gained many friends in France, where he resided for several years, and who sorely deplore his loss.

descriptive Lecture. Choruses incidental to Exhibited every Wednesday and Saturday open half an hour previous Stalls and Boxes, 1s. Children under 12, half admitted. The Stalls are carpeted and lit in the evening at the Morning Exhibitions. Tickets to be had of G. Street.

In Counties G. Ke.

WANTED by a Gentleman in Possession, a Small Estate of 30 to 30 Acres of Land. The House must contain 4 Bedrooms and 2 servants' rooms. Address—F. G. G. O. Americk.

VICTORIA

TO BE LET, Unfurnished HOUSE now occupied by N. in the most healthy situation. It is admirably situated for perfect accommodation at extremely moderate. Apply to

JOHN BERNARD who has been directed to Brighton—four-wheeled complete, fitted with Shaft can be drawn by hand, by complete suit of new Harness at £60, but the price fixed. Apply to JOHN BERNARD

Runnige and

BY Unreserved Auction Hall—entrance by next, the 29th inst., a great quantity of small phaetons, draught, water piping stillons, rights, grates, stoves, chimney pieces, window sashes, counter and other desks, instead, crates, packing of lace frames, stands, &c. Sale at 12 o'clock.

P.S.—As immediate purchase, which contains the end the sale may rest all be withdrawn, no matter, Rutland-street, Lincolns