DAY, MARCH 10, 1815.

of Friday and Saturday have been the Chester Mail of Sunday is due. The coach and suite landed at Dover on Monday in London on Saturday afternoon. The Earl of Chester has returned from his Lordship a satisfactory proceedings of the Congress at Vienna. The health of the Emperor of Austria to have been proclaimed on the 20th points have been definitively settled, proceeding with minor arrangements. It would appear, has acceded to the Emperor, having accepted the invitation of the Emperor and set out for Vienna.

It is to be erected into a Kingdom. The Archduchess Maria Louisa will be crowned on the 24th of her son.

In confidence, that Mr. Madison, the Secretary of the Treaty of Peace.

The Corn Bill came under the consideration of the Commons on Friday night. A motion was made, that the bill be read that day. It was negatived by a majority of 162; it was then committed to a select committee. On Monday the bill was moved by Mr. Vansittart; and on Tuesday by Mr. Baring, to postpone the second reading, which was negatived by a majority of 162. The commencement of this interesting discussion is preceding column; it shall be continued.

It is to be observed that his observation should not divert us from a sense of our duty. The paragraph which announced the death of a brother and our intention of publishing it should not have induced any disadvantage. It was moderate and we omitted to add the words of condolence, who says:—"We will send his body to the trial when we can copy our paper. It will prove this moral truth—that no man may be impeded in her course of duty, she will at length arrive at the end of her journey."

The Honorable Serjeant Moore returned from Ennis, and opened his County Court, when the following were sworn:—

GRAND JURY
The Hon. W. Massy, Esq., Foreman—Hon. W. Massy, Esq., J. FitzGerald, Esq., Thomas Rice, D.C. O'Grady, Esq., George Evans Bruce, Esq., Eyre Evans, Esq., H. F. Royston, Esq., Blennerhasset, Esq., J. Smyth, Th. Casey, Esq., J. Stavley, and E. Carte, Esqrs. also opened the commission in Ennis and adjourned till to-morrow. At Ennis were at press, the Honorable Serjeant Moore arrived in town.

The Grand Jury, Charles Dinahan, Charles Michael Dunn, were found guilty of conspiracy, in the house of Michael O'Keefe, to be hanged—day of execution on the County of Clare, at this place will be most oppressive: the Grand Jury have, however, with credit, determined not to give one penny presentment that the county were actually necessary.

The Great Seal of Ireland, to invest the executive authorities of that kingdom, in the absence of Lord Whitworth, who is expected to return in the course of this week.—Courier. It is reported that a new creation of peerage is to take place, in which Sir David Perrier, of Cork and two or three other Irish nobles are included.

At an early hour, a poor man named John, while returning from foddering his horse near Cashel, and when dead, beaten on the head with a gun, part of which stuck in the forehead. The murderer came to his house the next day at his brother by mistake, and wounded

The depot of the 63d regt. from Ipswich, arrived at Portsmouth on Friday, and proceeded immediately to the Isle of Wight.

One of the dragoons in garrison at Carrick-on-Suir, shot himself through the mouth last Tuesday morning, and expired immediately.

TRALEE, MARCH 2.—Last week, M. Barrington, Esq. Crown Solicitor, arrived in town from Dublin, (having been purposely sent off by the Lord Lieutenant,) and the morning after his arrival, proceeded in company with Richard Francis Blennerhasset, Esq. a magistrate of the county, Arthur Chute, Esq. land waiter, and a party of the military to Rossbeigh, the scene of the plunder of the Tartar brig, (which has been before stated,) and there made such enquiries, and received such depositions as will, we hope, enable the government effectually to carry into execution their laudable determination of punishing an act of such barbarous depravity, as would disgrace the most savage shores.—Kerry Evening Post

We have just heard, that an attack was made last night on the village of Benmore, by a large party of those nocturnal disturbers of the peace of this county, Townsend Gun, Esq. of Tebrid, having had intimation of the intended attack, repaired to the place with several of his tenants, where they received the assailants so warmly as to render their precipitate retreat necessary, but not before one of them was severely wounded in the shoulder by Mr. Gun's fire. Mr. Gun, whose conduct cannot be too highly commended, had, we are informed, a very narrow escape, having been grazed in the forehead by the fire from the assailants on the commencement of the attack.—Ibid.
