

own shores. The government, yesterday, at least, dissuaded, all those thinkers: but, since the news of this such a thought. The subjoined is content on the war:—

DOVER, SIX P M MARCH 15
From Bologna have this instant arrived, messengers I learn, that Bonaparte got to h—Duke De Orleans quitted Lyons, at Paris. It is said that Bonaparte's force to 40,000; the Lefebvre and many are gone over to him; Massena, it is said, in his favour; in fact, the whole decidedly for him, but the civilians quite opposite. The opposite coast (the) crowded with English families, an opportunity to cross. The Duke it is said, is arrived by the vessel.

Second Edition.
Which Bonaparte in his rout to Lyons left out any attempt to take possession, has your. The perfidious Soul had made a depot, and by its defective Bonaparte reinforcement of 14,000 men, 200 y, and upwards of 100,000 stand of Marchand was shot by his own troops, the town, and his army joined Bonaparte are every where faithful—the military Marshals Macdonald, Massena, and Four Generals and many official Paris to join Bonaparte.

General Advertiser

— TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 1815.

We have received in the regular mode of London Journals from the 11th to the 16th and by them, we are in possession of Paris columns will be found every thing worthy of our papers.—The ratification of the treaty of America and this country, with the substance thereof.—The entrance of Bonaparte into Paris—Retreat of Monsieur—Resignation of the troops under Mollis, to Bonaparte—Account of Bonaparte's movements, &c. &c.—We have been able to glean from our regular arrivals, in our power to present our readers with additional articles exclusively received by us, London correspondent.

at Paris—Louis XVIII. Fled, on Thursday Evening, Seven o'Clock.

has just arrived from Paris, at the Foreign Attachés, announcing, that Napoleon reached the 14th inst.—Louis the XVIIIth, having retreated. He is gone it is stated, towards Belgium, and he will place himself under the protection of the troops in that country. One of Bonaparte's claims the Rhine, as the boundary of the soldiers immediate employment in it is therefore expected, that hostilities will commence against the British troops in Belgium. It of course, be again involved in a new of Commons this evening, Mr. Whitbread, extraordinary events which have just taken place expressed a hope, that this country would not interfere in the affairs of France. Lord Castlereagh, in reply, declared that Ministers had no intention of dictating to France, entered into engagements with our allies, to the maintenance of which, the national honor was at stake he had no doubt, but that the country Majesty's ministers to fulfil their duty.—A force of 70,000 British and Hanoverian period, do we recollect to have seen so extraordinary in the state of affairs in general, as has now been concluded with all the world—Bonaparte prisoner—the Bourbon's restored; and every thing finally settled.—Yet in the space of a few days is changed—Europe is again disturbed, which it was but beginning to enjoy, and more into that sea of blood from which it has just emerged—and all this, effected by ONE MAN.—We cannot attempt to look—We give the facts—

Second Edition.

In the House of Lords, on Tuesday, the Earl of Limerick presented a Petition from the Freeholders of this county, which his Lordship among other points, said, pray generally for protection against the Importation of Foreign Corn, and stating that these Petitioners consider their interests interwoven and linked together with those of this country, with which they wish to stand or fall. The petition, being read, was ordered to lie on the table.

On Saturday evening, the Assizes of this county ended, when the Judge pronounced the awful sentence of the law on the following prisoners, (whose convictions appeared in our last):—

Wm. Torpy, John Burke, and Daniel Riordan, to be executed at the Hill of Ardpatrick, on Monday, the 25th April next.

James O'Donnell; at Croom, on Monday the 10th.
Wm. Curtin, at Gallows Green, near this city, on Thursday the 20th.

BIRTHS

On Thursday, at Charleville, the Lady of Boles Reeves, Esq. of a Son.

MARRIED.

At Londonderry, on the 15th inst the Rev. James Forward, Bond, Dean of Ross, to Sarah Hester, daughter of the late John Croker, Esq. Surveyor-General, and sister of John Wilson Croker, Esq. M. P. and Secretary to the Admiralty.

At Southampton, Col. Maxfield, of the 67th regiment, to Miss Robbins, the only unmarried daughter of J. Robbins, Esq.

In Clonmel, the Rev. James M'Cheane, to Lucia, fifth daughter of the late R. Backas, Esq. of Waterford.

DIED.

In Ennis, Mrs O'Brien, relict of the late John O'Brien, of Toonagh, Esq.

As much of the Trial as we have received, of Bruce v. Jackson, appears in our Fourth Page.

Cogniac Brandy, } 119
Holland Gin, } ENGAGED GENUINE,
Jamaica Rum, }

On Sale at P. MURPHY'S,
PATRICK-STREET,
Who has arrived to him, a general supply
OF
Groceries, Teas, Wines, Spirits, &c.
Limerick, March 21.

A CLUB OF 124
THIRTY WHOLE TICKETS,
For the advantage of Sixty Subscribers,
AT £12 EACH,
Is opened at EDWARD BERNARD'S Office,
By whom Subscriptions are received.
The Tickets are lodged in one of the Banks in this City.
Post Office, Limerick, March 21.

TO BE LET IMMEDIATELY, 31
The Assembly-House,
With all the Concerns belonging thereto
THE situation is well calculated for Ware-Houses, or for Persons engaged in any description of Shop Business.—Proposals to be left with Mr.
HOWLEY, on Charlotte's Quay.
Limerick, March 21.

ESTABLISHED
Garden, Grass, and Flower Seed,
WARE-HOUSE,
No. 13, Patrick-Street, 9
Mrs. FRANCES COGHLAN,
HAS this Day received per the ALICE, from London, via Dublin, a General and Extensive
Supply of GRASS SEEDS, consisting of Red, and White, Clover,
American Cow Grass,
Trefle Perennial Rye Grass, and
Yorkshire Hayseed, &c. &c.

Also a most enlarged Supply of FLOWER SEEDS, containing some of the Rarest Sorts. She has also received Her Final Supply of OXEN SEED, and every article in the Garden Seed Line. She feels a confidence in of-

Town Fields,

FROM THE 1ST OF MAY NEXT,
TO BE LET,
TOGETHER OR SEPERATELY,

THE beautiful TOWN FIELDS near Rossbrifen, now in the possession of the Hon. GEORGE MASSEY. The excellence of the Land, on which there is a constant supply of Water, and their contiguity of the Newtown render them most eligible.

There is an Excellent Dwelling House, Out Office and a well improved Garden on the premises.

Application to A. F. O'NEILL, Esq.

Limerick, March 21.

AGGREGATE MEETING. 54

At a MEETING of the ROMAN CATHOLICS of the County and City of Limerick, held on Friday, 17th Instant, at St. Michael's Chapel, the following Resolutions were unanimously agreed to:

William Roche, Esq. in the Chair.

RESOLVED—That the Petition, now read, be accepted as that of the Catholics of the County and City of Limerick.

Resolved—That our Chairman be requested to forward the same to the most Noble the Marquis of Lansdowne, and a Duplicate to the Right Hon. Col. Odell, and that the former be requested to present it to the House of Lords, and the latter, aided by his colleague, the Hon. Windham Quin, to the House of Commons, as early as possible in the present Session. We take this opportunity to express our acknowledgments to these excellent Personages for their uniform adherence to our cause.

Resolved—That we feel it due to ourselves, and our posterity, to persevere in our claims, until we obtain from the Legislature our full and unqualified Emancipation; and that our proceedings shall be ever directed to that broad and constitutional object; strenuously recommending to our countrymen, in the pursuit and vindication of our civil rights, to preserve separate and inviolate the purity and integrity of our Religion.

Resolved—That our Thanks be hereby given to Counselors O'Connell and O'Garra, for their uniform zealous and talented exertions in the advancement of the Catholic cause.

Resolved—That our Thanks be hereby given to the Rev. M. Hogan, for his ready liberal, and polite accommodation of St. Michael's Chapel, for the purpose of this Meeting.

(Signed) WILLIAM ROCHE.

Mr Roche having left the Chair, Mr. Evans moved that Mr. John Howley, jun. should take the same when it was—

Resolved—That the Thanks of the Meeting be given to Mr. Roche, for his highly proper and dignified conduct in the Chair.

(Signed) JOHN HOWLEY, jun. Chairman.

At a Meeting of the Agricultural Interests of the County of Limerick, and the County of the City of Limerick, held at the Commercial Buildings, Limerick, on Friday, 17th March, 1815.

EDWARD CROKER, Esq. of Ballineagard, in the Chair.

THE following Resolutions were moved by THOS. RICE, Esq. of Mount Trenchard, second by the Knight of Glin, and carried unanimously.

RESOLVED—That we consider the Establishment of Agricultural Societies, as productive of the most beneficial consequences to the Community by which they are supported.

That we do therefore form ourselves into a Society for the Encouragement of Agricultural Improvement for the County of Limerick and the County of the City of Limerick.

That acknowledging the practical advantages which have arisen from the Cork and Fermoy Farming Societies, we adopt the Rules of those Institutions, as the foundation of our Establishment.

That, the following Noblemen and Gentlemen do constitute the Officers of the Society.

PRESIDENTS:

Earl of Clare.—Earl of Limerick.

VICE PRESIDENTS:

Lord Massy, Sir Vere Hunt, Bart.
Lord Kiltarton, John Waller,
Hon. Windham Quin, M. P. Edward Croker.