

who told him if he did not stand back he would run him through, the man went back a little; the man came again to the front of the mob, and the soldier stabbed him in the breast with the point of the bayonet; the soldier advanced at a quick pace from amongst the other soldiers; there was the length of the musket and perhaps a yard between the soldier and the man, who fell back when he was stabbed; I am not sure that I should know that soldier again (here witness looked at the prisoner, but said he was not sure that he was the man.)

Cross-examined by Mr. Rolleston—The soldiers were obliged to go slow on the road, on account of the crowd which increased as they came forward to the town; the people kept pushing in to have a view; those behind pressed them; they were calling the soldiers a variety of bad names, there were people climbing up on cars about the bridewell yard.

Other witnesses were examined in this case to similar effect. The judge detailed the evidence at considerable length, after which the jury retired and returned a verdict of Guilty of a common assault committed in discharge of his duty.

Three months imprisonment.

SENTENCES OF PRISONERS.

Judge Crampton passed sentence on a number of prisoners. Charles Bebbel acquitted of rape, but found guilty of an assault, with the intent of committing that crime, to be imprisoned for eight months. Jeremiah M'Auliff, pig stealing, 7 years' transportation. Daniel M'Carthy, Denis M'Carthy, John M'Carthy, Daniel Kinnelly, and Catherine Kinnelly, for manslaughter of Darby Golden—John M'Carthy to be imprisoned nine months; Daniel M'Carthy, Denis M'Carthy, and Denis Kinnelly, six months each. Matthew Fitzgerald, manslaughter, to be imprisoned for nine months. Patrick M'Auliffe, manslaughter of Maurice Flynn, to be imprisoned for three months. Thos. Parker, John Wade, David Seymour, James Murray, John Bernane, George Rycroft, John Donovan, John Brien, John Keogh, Martin Keogh, and Catherine Coakley, riot and attack upon the Police. His Lordship sentenced Wade to nine, Parker four, Brien four, and the remainder to three months' imprisonment each.

Mr. M'O'Keefe was next placed at the bar, and his Lordship said, you have been found guilty of the crime of soliciting one Keffe to commit the act of perjury, in order that you may be the better enabled to dispossess two of your tenants of their lands. It grieves me to witness so respectable-looking a member of society found guilty of such a crime, which though only a misdemeanour in law, in turpitude is of greater magnitude than some of those crimes for which I have already passed sentence.

Mr. O'Hara, on the part of the prisoner, interrupted his Lordship, and having apologised, prayed for the mitigation of punishment, grounded on domestic troubles and afflictions of a painful and delicate nature, and soliciting the attention of his lordship to a medical certificate which he held in his hand.

His Lordship inquired if the certificate was supported by affidavit?

Mr. O'Hara replied in the negative.

His Lordship said, therefore, he could not pay attention to it. To be imprisoned for ten months.

Wm. Curtin, David Curtin, and Cornelius Guinee, convicted of the murder of Michael Bennett, process-server, at Glounakeill, were placed at the bar, to receive the extreme sentence of the law, which his Lordship fixed to take place on the 20th April next. Jeremiah M'Carthy, malicious assault on David Burns, a year's imprisonment. Anne M'Carthy, larceny, 6 months' imprisonment. William Kinmonth, a man of his neighbourhood, to be imprisoned for one of the most atrocious deeds that ever stained the character of a hitherto peaceable district.

Mr. Walker, M.P. and M. Talbot, M.P. took tea with the Wexford tectotallers on Patrick's night.

On Tuesday morning a lad named Michael Hourigan, residing at Mount Shannon, suffered a severe lacerated wound of the left foot, by a beam of timber falling on him. The same evening Thomas Murphy, a working mason, fell off a scaffold, by which his left leg was dreadfully fractured, and both bones protruded through the flesh. The patients were brought to Barrington's Hospital, where they were immediately admitted, and promptly attended to by Sir Richard Franklin, who entertains hopes that the cases will do well, altho' of a most serious and dangerous character.

Mr. Vokes, many years conductor, and now proprietor of the celebrated firm of Wilson, George's-st. has just sent over by special order, for the London Court Drawing-room, a few pair of the most elegant dress patent leather boots and shoes, ever manufactured in Ireland, and fully equal, if not superior, to the very finest English work.

Sir Charles H. Coote, M.P. has re-opened the coal mines on his estate at Mountrath, and is working them prosperously.

The favourite ship Borneo of this port, the largest class of vessels on the river Shannon, has made up her complement of passengers for Quebec, and will sail on the 31st. Upwards of 300 agriculturalists and mechanics with their families proceed by this conveyance to settle in Canada.

Sixteen hundred bags of Flour were imported to Liverpool from India, last week!

The shops of Mr. Henry Goff and Mr. Kingsmill, at Portarlino, were robbed last week.

The committee of the central Agricultural society for Ireland is to sit in Dublin the 5th April, to frame the rules and regulations.

Our respected cotemporary, the Evening Mail, is mistaken in supposing the radical interest to be paramount in this county. Intelligence and property are now competent to return one conservative member for the county, in the event of a dissolution of Parliament.

We regret that want of room prevents us this day from giving insertion to Mr. Dickson's admirable letter to the landed proprietors, upon the Shannon Navigation Acts, and Grand Jury compulsory taxation, and other matters, but, if possible, it shall appear in our next.

We are authorised to state that a number of years since in consequence of some heavy losses by fire, and the want of a good Engine in the Parish of St. Michael's, a Vestry was holden, when it was unanimously resolved on, that a superior Fire Engine should be purchased, and our fellow Citizen, John N. Russell, was requested to order one, which he did from Hadley and Co. Longacre, the first makers in England, who shipped a fine Patent Engine, for which Mr. Russell had to pay over £180. This sum he fully expected would either be levied on the Parish or paid by the wealthy inhabitants—but neither was done, and Mr. Russell was desired to go to law for the amount, which he positively declined, and this Engine, on which and all its buckets "St. Michael's Parish" was painted, was left on his hands, and he now has it in as good order as the first day. He frequently has sent it to assist in putting out various Fires, even of those who refused to contribute towards its cost. Mr. Russell must therefore feel surprized that when the Commissioners of the Parish thought of having an Engine, they should have overlooked those facts, and have taken on themselves to order one, though (as before given as an excuse for not taking Mr. Russell's); the law does not sanction the purchase, and that any rate including its costs cannot be levied, and will be resisted. Possibly all the present Commissioners are ignorant of these facts, or they never would have attempted to act in so shameful, and so illegal a manner.—[COMMUNICATED.]

CHARITY.—A superb piece of Tapestry work to be raffled for at Simpson's Hotel, Brunswick-street, on Saturday, the 3d April, at 6 o'clock. The work in the interim to be seen at Mrs. Braxton's, Cecil-street, where tickets can be purchased at 3s. each.

The "British and Irish United Fire Insurance Company," offer great encouragement to the owners and occupiers of "Mills," as this old and respectable Company have not increased their Premiums to the extent that other offices have done. We are informed that in some instances their premiums are so much as 10 per cent. "on mills," under those of other offices.—See Advertisement.
