

have its fame shaken. After making some severe animadversions, he moved, That the name of Doctor John Law, now Bishop of Clonfert and Kilmaedugh be expunged from the names inserted in the bill.

Mr. Burgh of Oldtown, while he condemned the warmth expressed by this Reverend Prelate respecting gentlemen of acknowledged and established characters, yet wished the Right Hon. Gentlemen would withdraw his motion, as he was certain the Rev. Lord had no ill intention, having on the contrary a goodness of heart that was the farthest from wilful offence.

Right Hon. Mr. Conyngham also requested it might be withdrawn.

The Attorney General accordingly complied.
