

last CHRONICLE) was held to-day at the workhouse, when Sir Richard de Burgho, Bart. was unanimously re-elected Chairman, Mr. John Barrington vice chairman, and Mr. Edward H. Goggin deputy vice chairman for the ensuing year. Stephen Hall, victualer, was declared contractor for the supply of best quality beef and mutton, for six months, at 5d. per lb. A letter from Mr. John Ganly, of William-street was read, declining to act as guardian for Market ward. State of Workhouse—Admitted during week, 161 paupers; discharged, 187; died, 12; remaining last Saturday, 2910; amount in Bank, to credit of Union, £3000.

Mr. Cannon, vice chairman of Killadysart union, was placarded at the Chapel on Sunday as a Souper and Orangeman! The board of guardians passed, thereupon, a resolution highly approving the conduct and demeanour of Mr. Cannon.

The salaries of the first-class clerks in the Irish poor law office are to be raised from 350l. to 500l. at a gradual advance of 20l. a year; the second class clerks to be raised to 350l. at the rate of 15l. a year. The reduced Inspectors will get 100l. a year.

A Testimonial to Mr. Gill, late Station Master at the Waterford and Limerick Railway here, has been got up, and to which many of our most influential fellow-citizens have already subscribed.—Mr. Kears and Mr. Spong receive subscriptions.

It is proposed to dissolve the Ennis gas company, though most of the shares are taken, as there is no appearance of operations to light the town. The required capital is only £2,500, in 500 shares of £5 each.

The Melbourne Argus announces the safe arrival, at Melbourne, of the "Champion of the Seas" from Liverpool, and contains a most complimentary address from the passengers (several of whom were Limerick friends) to the captain for his attention to them during their uncommonly short and agreeable voyage; also their thanks to Messrs. James Baines & Co. her enterprising owners, for their liberality in providing every comfort for them in that magnificent Black Ball liner.

Mr. Alex. M'Donogh's Seaman won the grand annual steeple chase handicap of £20 each, £100 added, at Warwick on Friday last. Four mile course, 39 subscribers.

We refer our readers, who are interested in building, &c. to the advertisement in our columns from Charles M'Donnell & Son, timber merchants, Kilrush. They have made considerable reductions in prices of timber, owing to their having made large purchases at very low rates.

KILKEE.—Notwithstanding the cold weather a bathing box has been thus early in the season placed on the strand, and is daily frequented by ladies, visitors, who brave the billow and the wave.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

It would be well for the £2,000 a-year Gentleman, who was not summoned on the Tipperary Grand Jury at Nenagh Assizes, to enlighten his fellow tax payers with the names of the persons who formed the late Grand Jury Panel at Nenagh, and who don't enjoy a rental of £200 a year.

A TAX PAYER, of the North Riding.

JOHN BERNAL, Auctioneer,
23, George-street.

It is respectfully intimated, to avoid giving offence, that all purchases must be paid for before removal.—This is consequent on the annoyance and loss of time running after parties who are insensible to the compliment of being allowed to remove their purchases without previously paying for them.

DEATHS.

On Saturday night last, at the house of her son in George's-street, Elizabeth, relict of the late Charles James, Esq. of this city—a lady whose long life was marked by exemplary attention to her domestic and religious duties.

At Scutari, of fever, on the 7th inst. where he was ordered with a detachment of invalids from the Crimea, Vincent Mackesy, Esq. Senior Lieutenant 63d Regt., son to Dr. Mackesy, JP. of Waterford, and nephew of General Vincent, Hon. East India Company's service. This young officer was never absent from his Regt. for one day during the campaign, and escaped all the dangers of the siege to meet an untimely end by the pestilence raging at Scutari hospital. Many in this garrison will lament his death, having made himself a general favorite during the stay of his Regt. in Limerick.

On the 21st March, at Lismore house, the residence of her brother, after a tedious illness, Miss Pepper.

On the 24th inst. at her house in Catherine-street, at an advanced age, Honora, the beloved wife of Francis O'Shaughnessy, Esq. She was kind, charitable, and is deeply regretted by a large family and numerous friends.

On the 20th inst. at Woodstock, in this county, and formerly of Rathkeale, after a patient illness, from an attack of influenza, James O'Donovan, Esq. aged 63. The grave has seldom closed over a fonder husband, better father, a sincerer friend, and in truth it may be said that "died an honest man."
