

er cwt.; beef at 50s; ...
 to market yesterday, ...
 and having been con-
 Jury, were destroyed
 ing for the Mayor.
 s been a very beautiful
 me few evenings past.
 s forth with great splen-
 e unusual phenomenon ight was seen. Sir John a shadow from its light
 n upon a white ground te paper:" but on the re distinctly observa-
 e as a turnpike road.
 he pledge in the bar-
 to several thousands.

of our last impression :
 y election committee line, adds one to the most precarious state.
 mittee met to-day. It l will be unseated for prayed, in the event of the noble earl, a new

his claim to the Portus to be rebuilt by the
 at Kilrush, on Thursday, Brew, was private, but suspicion are liberated.
 a reward of £5 for the n the town of Kilrush, e persons who signed a nley's Bill.

adians for Kilrush were return for that town ejects e following nominated by ed, viz.—Messrs. Francis
 'Donnell, Thomas Brew,
 as held at Cashel—the hen a petition to Parlia-peth's Bill was adopted.
 ie, Rev. Mr. Caffar, Mr. y, and Mr. Doheny.
 is appointed a Magistrate

arrison, move on Thurs-
 nd the company at Bruff,
 aced there by a company
 e arrested in Cashel, on

Gordon, of Hallhead.
 At Greenock, John Jamieson, Esq. merchant, Glasgow, to Agnes Ritchie, eldest daughter of James Miller, Esq.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, Charles William Sibley, Esq. of the 26th, or Cameronians, to Ellen Amelia, daughter of the late John Abbott, Esq.
 At Liverpool, Edward Hanks, Esq. son of Joseph Hanks, Esq. to Emily Brook, third daughter of Thomas F. Lovering, Esq. late of Swansea.
 In Edinburgh, John Balfour, jun. Esq. to Agnes, eldest daughter of the late Captain Robert Boyle, of the 42d Highlanders.
 In St. Peter's Church, Joseph Judge Hayes, Esq. of Bermondsey, to Margaret, second daughter of George Moore, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 22d March, in Paris, suddenly, the Duchess de Stacpoole.
 On Monday evening, at his house in Catherine-street, after a short illness, in the 53d year of his age, George Sexton, Esq. to the grief of his sorrowing family and sincere regret of his numerous friends. He was an attached husband and father, and a kind friend. He felt for the poor and needy in their distresses, and often exerted himself for their relief. In his death, with his departing breath, he looked up to the Lord Jesus Christ for mercy and forgiveness, in whom there is plenteous Redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sinners. His remains are to be deposited in the family vault in St. Mary's early on Thursday morning.
 At Kilrush, on the 28th inst. after a protracted illness, which she bore with Christian patience and resignation, Isabella, the beloved daughter of William Channer, Esq. Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.
 In George's-street, at the advanced age of 77, Rebecca, relict of the late George Vokes, Esq. of Cragbeg, in this county—a Lady of great piety, and exceedingly charitable.
 In Ennis, after a tedious illness, Mr. Denis Spellissy, victualler.
 Olivia, wife of John Shiell, Esq. of Castleblaney.
 At Clogrennan, county Carlow, Fanny, wife of Horace Rochfort, Esq.
 At Moate, Elizabeth, widow of J. Hackett, Esq. Dorrington, Westmeath.
 George Montgomery, of Ballyconnell, county Cavan, Esq. in the 88th year of his age.
 At Kilrea, county of Derry, aged 75, John Henderson, Esq.
 Suddenly, at Castlefin, William Gamble, Esq. of Strabane.
 At Brookhill, aged 79 years, Margaret, relict of the late Rev. H.
 Brooke, of Burt.
 At Randalstown, Mr. John O'Neill, aged 87.
 At Cheltenham, Maria, the wife of John Kennedy, Esq. of Dunbrody-park, Wexford.
 Margaret Walker, wife of James King, jun. Esq. late Banker in Glasgow.
 At Dumbarton Distillery, Margaret Cadenhead, wife of Mr. John Lang.
 At Liverpool, in her 81st year, Mrs. Chevalier, widow of the late Thomas Chevalier, Esq. Surgeon of South Audley-street.
 At Mortlake, in the 92d year of her age, Valentina, daughter of the late Lillie Smith Aguscombe, Esq. of St. Leonard's-bill, Berks.
 At Antwerp, Mr. Thomas Kay, merchant.
 At Southampton, in her 81st year, Maria, widow of James Byrn, Esq.
 Major-General Sir James Viney, R.A.
 At East Bridgeford, Notts, Lieut. Peter Brooke, R.N.
 At Havanna, Caroline, wife of Don Miguel Pie, eldest daughter of the late Major-General Seymour, Governor of St. Lucia.
 John Cornelius Seymour, of the Survey Department, Hobarttown, Van Diemen's Land, son of the late Major-General Seymour, Governor of St. Lucia.
 At Bordeaux, Richard Lothian Dickson, Esq. of Lockerwoods, Dumfriesshire.
 Friday, at Abbington Glebe, in this county, Miss Lefanue, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Lefanue, L.L.D. Dean of Emly.
 At Mallow, John H. son of Thomas Rivington, Esq.
 Mr. William Furlong, Clerk to the Poor Law Guardians of the Wexford Union.
 In Kildare-place, Dublin, Thomas, eldest son of the Rev.
 Thomas Flynn.
 At Noan House, near Thurles, Thomas Phelps, Esq.

MICHAEL MURRY,
 Irish Plantation mea-
 The House is larg
 description of Office
 excellent for Fatteni RALAHINE is sit
 two of Six-mile-bri
 Fergus.
 Proposals in writi
 GABBETT, Esq, Sh

Victoria
AND
No. 18, KING WIL
Capit

Sir James
 Benjamin Ha
 William Allen, Esq
 Benjamin Barnard,
 Charles Baldwin, E
 James Cockburn, E
 Bryan Donkin, Esq
 Aaron Goldsmith,
 James Law Jones,

John Barnard, Esq.
 William Hawes, E

Messrs. B

Archibald Billi

James Farish

Ru

Mes

W

The Advant

Policies granted
 Low Rates of P Claims payable
 Age of the Ass
 Assurances may Losses are paid
 Prospectuses m
 Messr

John
SIR

Agen