

ALMOST BOOKED OUT

The Limerick Operatic Society, making their first appearance at the Savoy, on Sunday night next, with a concert arrangement of "The Bohemian Girl," as the primary attraction, are already assured of a generous welcome. Inquiry to-day at the Savoy indicated that virtually all the popular priced seats in the theatre are booked out, and that only a few of the higher priced remain. Mr. James Johnston, well-known tenor, will be principal on the programme, which will include many popular operatic selections.

HELD OVER

Owing to great pressure on our space letters on the Limerick 1690 Siege controversy and an article on Limerick Art Exhibitions are unavoidably held over. They will appear in our issue for Monday next.

BONUS ORDER

The Minister has made a bonus order granting a total bonus of 10/- per week to male confectioners and 7/- per week to female confectioners in the County Borough of Limerick, payable on and from 29th November, 1943.

April—but whether the insanity was known to Mr. Ryan at the time of the transaction. Mr. Dodds did not say to Mr. Ryan that she was not normal. Mr. Browne also knew her mental condition and history. He cashed a cheque for £55 for her, which indicated that he thought her capable of managing her own affairs. He would not have done so if he had the slightest suspicion that she was insane. Mr. Browne considered that the trap and pony were good value for £55. Mr. de Courcy did not consider she was insane, and firms in the city had accepted cheques from her after 9th April.

It seemed to him (Judge) that the onus had not been discharged of satisfying him that on the date in question Mr. Ryan had a clear knowledge of the fact that this woman was unsound to the point of being incapable of managing her affairs. In default of the proof Mr. Ryan was entitled to the amount of the cheque, and he would accordingly give a decree.

AUGUSTINIAN CHURCH FUND

Draw for lady's and boy's bicycles and cash prizes, in aid of Augustinian Church building fund, took place at the Augustinian Priory on Wednesday night last, in the presence of a large gathering of clergy and the committee. The lucky tickets were drawn by Very Rev. J. B. O'Donohue, O.S.A., Provincial of the Order, and the results are announced in the advertising columns of this issue. Very Rev. Father O'Flynn, O.S.A., Prior at Limerick, and organiser of the raffle, wishes to thank all those who sold and bought tickets. All who help in those raffles or buy tickets are doing it for a good cause, the clearing of the debt still due on the new church, and shall always be remembered by the Augustinian Community of Limerick.

WORKED FOR £1 A YEAR

Mrs. Bridget Hurley, of Donard, Co. Wicklow, celebrated her 102nd birthday on Wednesday. Dublin's oldest woman, Mrs. Hurley was one of a family of twelve, has been twice married, and, in her youth, worked on the land for 5/- per 3-month period, or £1 a year.
