DEATHS.

In the prime of life, Eliza, only daughter of the late Norcott Henry D'Estere, Esq., of Meelix, county Clare. Possessed of many qualities which deservedly endeared her to her friends, she learned to account them as dross compared to the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus our Lord—a knowledge which gave her sweet resignation during her long illness, and perfect peace at its close.

At her sister's house in William-street, of consumption, which she bore for two years and eleven months with the greatest patience and resignation, Henrietta Cockburn, youngest daughter of Captain James Fitzgerald, late of Sixmilebridge House, co. Clare.

At Kilbrannan, county Clare, Robert McGrath, Esq. M.D. aged 84.

In Bath, aged 88 years, Mrs. Vereker, relict of the late Amos Vereker, Esq. By her demise a large property reverts to Lord Viscount Gore.

Anne, third daughter of John Chambers, Esq. of Upper Rutland-street, Dublin.

In Dame-street, Dublin, aged 10 years, William Anthony, son of Christopher Eiffe, Esq.

In Upper Charlemont-street, Dublin, George Hill, Esq.

In the 21st year of his age, Edward Callaghan, Esq. S.T.C.D.

In Lower Abbey-street, Mrs. Hodges, mother to Alderman Hodges, of Dublin, in her 67th year.

In Cork, George Dunscombe, Esq.

At Tralee, at an advanced age, Mr. James Fitzgerald, late of Cahervishen.

John Leacock, Esq. of Westwood, and Pondwell, Isle of Wight, and Principal of the firm of Leacock and Harris, at Madeira.

At Richhill, co. Armagh, William Crozier, Esq. in his 59th year.

At Castlecomer, Charlotte, wife of Captain Henry Hartford.

At Greenmount, Drummond, in his 19th year, Robert John, fourth son of William Chauvin Colvill, Esq. of Clontarf.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, Mrs. Berkeley, relict of the late Richard Berkeley, Esq. Captain in the Wexford Militia.

At Cove, Richard, eldest son of the late Mr. Rd. Wood, of Cork.

Doctor O'Connor of Lanesborough, for 42 years a practising physician in that town and neighbourhood. Doctor John O'Connor of Roscommon, has been nominated, by the subscribers of the Bal ance Dispensary, to take charge of that Institution, of which the late Dr. O'Connor was for several years Medical attendant.

At Collon, county Louth, suddenly, of apoplexy, Samuel McCauley, Esq. late Lieutenant of the 3d Royal Veteran Battalion.

At Southampton-row, Russell-square, in his 82d year, the Rev. Jas. Capper, M.A. more than 55 years Vicar of Wilmington, Sussex.

At Bramcote House, Hampshire, Gerardine, daughter of Sir Francis Knowles, Bart.

At Cobham, Surrey, Mark Currie, Esq. in his 78th year.

At Watergate, Sussex, Frances, wife of General Crosbie.

At Pimlico, the Rev. Charles Sloman, in his 71st year.

At the house of John Ord Esq. Aldwicke Lodge, near Bognor.

At Tait Shields, Esq. in his 60th year.

At Greyst's Court, Oxfordshire, Mary Dowager Lady Stapleton, relict of Sir Thomas Stapleton, in the 91st year of her age.

At Bilton, near Teignmouth, Devon, William Mackworth Praed, Sergeant-at-Law, in his 79th year.

At Montreal, Upper Canada, M. Mabey, Esq. Staff Surgeon to the Forces, and formerly of the 3d Buffs.

At Rochester, United States of America, John Higginbotham, Esq. late a Lieutenant in his Majesty's 14th Foot.

MR. MEINY begins his lessons to the young gentlemen of the County of Limerick. He is a distinguished patron of education, and has, in the last seven years, given a thousand guineas to the schools, according to the model policy which he adopts.

Mr. M. may be seen teaching the imputation of errors; his system of instruction is recognised by the plains. Mr. M. continues to teach the elegant art of FENCING, for Gymnastic exercise, not only for the promotion of health, but also to teach the carrying of a sword.

He is always supping at the most fashionable tavern, the Mazourkee, as the Foreign Couriers, who are always chanced by the Stewards, for no person may be had at any rate.

Commands, address in the 122, George's-street, attended to.

Newcastle.

To come off May 20th.

Sweepstakes: The Stewards will add gentlemen, three miles and four years old, 10th and 12th Gentlemen. Any person chosen by the Stewards. One sovereign per race, unless three start.

Second Sweepstakes: Stewards will add gentlemen, three miles, aged 4 years old, 10th and 12th Gentlemen. Any person chosen by the Stewards. One sovereign per race, unless three start.

Races to carry five guineas. The winner to purchase Horses to be ever ten guineas. Courtenay Arms, on the second instant, with the starting rider. One sovereign to the winner on each race.

There will be a Sketch, and a Ball and Entertainment. Tickets to be had.

LARD STEWARD