

Ward, Master, arrived at this port, in 32 days, from New York, with flaxseed to William White, Esq.

The children of a distressed Lady, mentioned in a late Chronicle, take this mode of expressing their gratitude to Mrs. Doctor Wilkinson, and the young Ladies who have so humanely exerted themselves in their relief; the only return within their reach will be the orphan's prayer, that the choicest blessings of Heaven may be the reward of those virtuous and humane individuals who, from a benevolent Public, collected the sum of £32 4s. 2d.

If the writer of a letter (sent through the post-office,) commencing with the words "Some mornings ago," and signed "A Friend," evinces as much candour as is professed, he or she will have the kindness to meet the address, who will convince the writer, with heartfelt satisfaction, that the representations imputed are unfounded.

Dublin Corn Exchange, March 7.

We had not any material alteration in prices of Grain this day, from last week, except on Oats, for export, which, having been in good demand, were from 3s. to 6s. per barrel dearer. Red Wheat, Barley, and Flour, are dull at our last quotations. Malt and Rapeseed are also heavy, and somewhat lower, former 30s. to 31s. 6d. per barrel for prime, and latter 28s. per barrel. The demand for Seeds having commenced, the following are the prices of this day:—White Clover Seed, £5 15s. to £7 per cwt. Red Clover Seed, £4 10s. to £5 15s. Trefoil Seed, £2 to £3 per cwt.

London Corn Exchange, March 5.

We had a good supply this morning by land carriage samples from Essex and Kent. The demand being brisk for fine qualities, they met ready sale, at an advance of 2s. per quarter. Fine Barley being scarce, sold 1s. per quarter higher. Beans are also 1s. per quarter dearer. The Out trade was brisker than last week.

WOOLLEN DRAPERY, TOMLIN & MOLONY, COAT BUILDERS, FROM LONDON, &c &c &c.

FROM the very great difficulty of getting in accounts, and the many favourable advantages which have struck out prices for present money, to exceed any ever offered in this City, list of which may be seen at their house. Any Gentleman, purchasing Goods of them, and living in the Liberties of this City, not pleased with the articles bought, may have their money back, if they return the said articles in 24 hours, after receiving the same; and also, persons living at a distance of 40 miles, not being satisfied, and returning same in 36 hours, also to be returned their money if so required, but they will expect the Sales effected, if not exceeding that time.

N.B.—They have just received a beautiful Assortment of Best SAXONY CLOTHS, and CASSIMERES, &c &c. A view of which, a Judgment may be formed of their variety;—but as quality and price constitute the real value of Goods, that can only be ascertained by the Inspection of the Nobility and Gentry; to hinder trouble, they only keep the best quality of Goods. ordered 2/5 March 3.
