

merick hounds will, for the remainder of the meet on Tuesday 18th at Graves Cross. The had a very good run on yesterday at Elmpark. Today morning, about half-past two o'clock Pett, City Surveyor, discovered that a fire broken out in the rear of the premises of Mr. P. Goggin, in Patrick street, when he at once gave alarm, and proceeded to the Watch-house, where he readily obtained the assistance of Mr. Hayes, and eight of the night watch, who aroused the firemen of the house, and having brought the Corbridge engine they introduced the hose through the roof and commenced to play on the offices which were on fire. By the most active exertions of the firemen, and the judicious arrangements of Mr. Hayes and Mr. Hayes, the fire was soon got under, and very much injury to the property on the premises. The place was insured, and the Company agreed to assess the damages at £40.

In the articles for the Bruff steeple-chase which appeared in our first page, in the third line, instead of 12 stone, weight it should read thus—12 stone, weight 3 years old 9st. 7lb.; 4 years 10st. 7lb.; 6 years 11st. 4lb.; 6 and aged 12st. The omission occurred in the manuscript.
