

...of age.
 te with Mr. Ellis? I never me for idleness.
 him? Not the slightest;
 on the work.
 your family? He was commit the murder? The
 the morning of the
 join them.

I had not,
 of several witnesses.
 and the jury in a very able ed to prove an alibi; and to evidence for the Crown.
 a most important and im-
 With regard to Burke was not to be regarded as at nine o'clock, and at were discharged without was in danger.

DAY.
 m Cormack, who was tried
 of murdering the late Mr.
 his brother, were placed on one indictment for the Mahara, on the 22nd of indictment they pleaded oted, and being recony, sentence of death was

he result of the difference Castle Staff—one of them
 minor appointment which r has taken the late Dr
 ure, paying £400 a year,
 rom the Collage contat,
 efroy and Dr. Gayer.
 oners have issued a sealed of an additional medical
 on the report of Dr.
 power each could be got report in 48 hours.
 married to the Hon Julia

as robbed of £2,500 on the detectives by assum-
 in a railway carriage.
 London, which failed
 are paying from 4s. to the present Lord Chana Midshipman at the his uncle, a namesake of Captain to Lord Nelson.

At Toronto, Canada West, to Harriett Anne, daughter of the late Thomas Milliken Mills, Esq. of Toronto.
 In Edinburgh, Lieutenant Duncan Stewart, Esq. to Margaret Feeroza, daughter of the Right Hon. Sir John M'Neil, GCB
 At Whitehouse, near Edinburgh, Sir George Home, Bart, of Blackadder, to Anne Oliphant, daughter of the late Graham Spiers, Esq. Sheriff of Midlothian.
 At Thame parish church, Oxfordshire, Duncan Graham
 Robertson, Esq. of Tossie and Mid-Borsland, Perthshire, NB,
 to Elizabeth Penelope, eldest daughter of the Rev. Thomas B.
 Fooker, of New College, Oxford.

DEATHS.

On the 3d inst. at his residence, Garrykennedy, sincerely regretted, Dr O'Brien, a kind and attentive practitioner, whose death will be severely felt by the people of the district.
 On Saturday night, at his house, in Catherine-street, Francis O'Shaughnessy, at the advanced age of 90 years. He was one of our oldest citizens, and beloved and respected by all who knew him.
 On Sunday, in Broad-street, Limerick, aged 33 years, Ellen, the beloved wife of David Garvey, Esq. TC—a lady whose virtues edified the community among which she lived, and whose urbanity of disposition endeared her to all her friends and acquaintances. To her husband and children her demise is a source of the deepest anguish, while the poor, whom she relieved, mourn the loss of a good and generous benefactor.
 In Nicholas-street, Honoria, wife of Mr. Denis Grimes, Treasurer of the Congregated Trades.
 In Thomondgate, Mrs. Catherine Hartigan, relict of Mr.
 Thomas Hartigan, and mother of Mr. Patrick Hartigan, relieving officer.
 In Dublin, Jane, widow of the late John Lewis, Esq. of Raepark, co Roscommon.
 At Drumcondra Castle, near Dublin, Elizabeth Douglas Trotter, daughter of the late Sir William Dick, Bart, of Pres-tonfield, Edinburgh, and wife of Lieut-General Sir Duncan M'Gregor, KCB.
 At Clermont, co Wicklow, in the 76th year of his age, J. A.
 Leonard, Esq. JP.
 At Arklow, co Wicklow, Mary, widow of the late Captain
 Jones, 32d Regt.
 At Ballinacarrig, Carlow, the Rev. Arthur St. George, rector of Staplestown, diocese of Ossory.
 At Cromwell's Fort, co Wexford, in the 89th year of his age,
 the Rev. Zachariah Cornock.
 In London, in her 63d year, Harriett, wife of Admiral Sir
 John West, KCB.
 At Eaton-place South, Lieut-General John Williams Aldred,
 late 60th Rifles.
 At Kensington, in the 63d year of his age, Major-General J.
 Walker, RM.
 In Upper Harley-st, James Ramsden, Esq.
 At Brixton-hill, Francis Williams Esq. for thirty years an officer of the House of Commons.
 At St. John's-wood, Elizabeth, relict of Thomas Fagg Esq.
 of Bedford.
 At Edinburgh, Jane Catherine, wife of Captain James Dixon, Royal Navy.
 At Knaresborough, Agnes, widow of the late Rev. Myles
 Jackson, of Whitby.
 At Rhyllon, Wales, Harriett Mary, wife of the Rev. William Owen, and sister of Mrs. Hemans and Colonel Browne, of the Dublin Police.
 At Auckland Castle, the Ton, Mrs. Longley, wife of the Lord
 Bishop of Durham.
 At Walmer, Lieut. Douglas, Royal Marine Light Infantry,
 son of Commander Douglas, RN.
 At Teignmouth, Sir John Haggerstone, Bart, of Ellingham, Northumberland.
 At Bath, Joseph Dixon, Esq. late of the War Office.
 At Greenwich, Lieut. George Mitford Monk, RN, superintendent of the Royal Hospital Schools.
 At Southsea, in his 66th year, Robert Shean, Esq. MD, late 7th Fusiliers.
 At Whitley Abbey, Coventry, the Hon. Mrs. Hood, widow of the Hon. Col. Hood.
 At Walmer, the Rev. John Barton, MA, rector of Eastchurch
 Kent.
 At Carlton House, Baget, Jersey, Lieut-Colonel Carter, late 14th Regt.

- 22 The Creation. Fine open l magnificent Victoria gilt frame—
- 23 The Day of Judgment. Fi Magnificent Victoria gilt
- 24 Christ Weeping over Jer Victoria gilt frame... East
- 25 Christ Blessing Little Child
 toria gilt frame...Claxton.
- 26 Acquittal of the Seven B
 proof. Magnificent Victor and book... Herbert.
- 27 Luther Burning the Pope's tered proof. Magnificent gi tive key... Daval.
- 28 Assertion of the Liberty proof before letters. Massive
- 29 Trial of Archbishop Laud.
 Magnificent Victoria gilt fr
 key...Johnstone.
- 30 Age and Infancy. Superb gilt frame...Marshall.
- 32 Trial of Lord William Russ
 A. P. Magnificent Victoria g Hayter.
- 33 Royal Christening. Fine p
 Magnificent Victoria gilt fra
 arms and descriptive key.
 Seares...Leslie.
- 34 Her Majesty receiving the Sa
 her Coronation. Fine p
 Magnificent Victoria gilt fra
 arms and descriptive key.
 destroyed...Leslie.

These very elegant specimens of be on view three days prior to the tion of the Nobility, Clergy and g distance; if unable to attend, the instructions will be faithfully exec
 respectful servant,

JOHN BERNAL, Auc
 28, George S

March 17

America-

FOR QUEBEC. To S 6th April ext, (win
 mitting, the well know
 BLACK; 1,000 Tons
 man, commander. And on or abo next, (wind and weather permitting
 Ship, "JESSY;" 1,300 Tons Burt Commander.

Each of these Vessels will take a Passengers, who will have ample a dation, and will be found in provisio
 This is an opportunity for a few de which will not occur again this S should therefore be lost in securing ng personally or by letter to the ow
FRANCIS SPAIGHT au

March 17