IN MEMORIAM.

O'Halloran (Fourteenth Anniversary)—In loving memory of Margaret O'Halloran, Lansdowne Terrace, Limerick, who died on the 22nd March, 1930. Sweet Jesus, have mercy on her soul. R.I.P. produce for itself. Its interest is to raise and make all it can for its own needs and to have a strong mercantile marine to do trading that will always be necessary between ourselves and outside countries. By doing all we can in these two directions we can attain a position of great economic strength and security.

OBITUARY

MISS JOSEPHINE LEE.

With very sincere regret we record the death of Miss Josephine Lee, 9 Downey Street, Killalee, Limerick, which occurred unexpectedly at St. John's Hospital on Wednesday, March 8th. Her demise at an early age came as a severe shock to all with whom she was acquainted. Of a gentle, refined and kindly nature, the deceased young lady endeared herself to a large circle of friends and acquaintances, with whom she was deservedly popular. Sincere sympathy is extended to her father, brother and sisters in their sad loss.

The funeral took place on Friday, March 10th, to Mount St.
Lawrence Cemetery and the cortege was of large proportions and fully expressed the sympathy felt for the bereaved relatives.

The chief mourners were—Mr.
William Lee (father), Mr. Christopher Lee (brother), Mrs. J. Hickey, Mrs. J. Clancy (sisters).

The clergy present were:—Rev.
W. J. O'Grady, C.C., St. John's; Rev. J. Moran, C.C., do.—R.I.P.
